FOR SOME OF THESE, IT'S THAT NEW FEELING

Coleman School youngsters alight from school bus under watchful eye of driver Paul Silva as public schools open for new year throughout Marin County. Some of these are kindergarten children attending their very first day of school. San Rafael schools reported an opening day enrollment of 3,890 in elementary schools, 1,830 at San Rafael High School, and 786 at Terra Linda High—slightly above predictions. Jones Criticized: 'Hampering Recall'

Petitions bearing more than 3,000 signatures, calling for a recall election of County Supervisor J. Walter Blair, will be filed with the county clerk's office on Sept. 15, chairman of the Recall Blair Committee said today.

G.M. Turns Down Plan From Union

DETROIT—The United Auto Workers Union today proposed that its contract differences with General Motors be submitted to "final and binding arbitration" but the company promptly rejected the offer. (See also story, page 7.)
The union, with a strike set for 10 a.m. tomorrow, had hedged on its offer by insisting that the arbitrators work out a settlement based on the pact it has already reached with American Motors and the benefits G.M. now provides for its salaried workers.
The UAW agreement with American Motors provides for profit sharing. The union has dropped profit sharing as a demand at G.M., but has insisted the benefits offered by G.M. must equal in value and scope those in the American Motors pact.
The union suggested that a three-man arbitration panel be named.

Auto Overturns—Airman Hurt

A/C John H. Goodwin, 21, of the Fourth Weather Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base, suffered minor cuts and abrasions when the 1958 sedan he was driving on Highway 101 turned over about two miles south of Novato about 2 a.m. today.
Goodwin told California Highway Patrolman he hit a soft shoulder of the road while driving south.

Franklin J. McClain of Alto, the committee chairman, blamed County Clerk George S. Jones for "hampering action" which, said McClain, prevented the committee from meeting its original deadline for filing.
"Our original time schedule has been set back by the action of the county clerk in renumbering the precincts in the Third District," said McClain.
"This reprecincting was begun after we had announced the recall move. Our attorneys have told us that there was no reason why the clerk should have done this renumbering of precincts right now. However, rather than contest this arbitrary action by the county clerk, we are now engaged in the time-consuming process of putting the correct new precinct number after each of more than 3,000 names we have on the petitions."
McClain said "we will certainly have far more than the 2,473 names required to call an election."
After the petitions are submitted, the county clerk has 10 days to check and verify them. If sufficient valid signatures are on the petitions, the board of supervisors must call an election on recall of Blair.
The election would be held in the Third District (Southern Marin) only. Voting on a successor to Blair—in the event of his recall—would be at the same election. So far, Peter N. Behr of Mill Valley is the only announced candidate.
"We had hoped that the recall election could have been held early in November," said McClain. "Because of the hampering action taken by the county clerk, the election will now be held late in November or early in December."

U.S. DENIES RUSS CHARGE OF SPYING

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The State Department today denied Soviet spy charges against American Marvin Makinen and denounced Russia for holding him incommunicado for more than a month and sentencing him in a secret trial. (See also story, page 2.)

Replying to Russian charges that Makinen confessed to espionage, a department spokesman told newsmen, "I think we've had other instances of so-called 'confessions' there. I do not place any great importance or worth to them."

Not Too Cool—But Better Than It Was

San Rafael had a not-too-cool 78 degrees temperature this noon after yesterday's sweltering 95 degrees drove throngs of Labor Day vacationers to beaches and parks.

San Francisco set an all-time high in the city for Sept. 4 with a 90-degree temperature yesterday.
San Anselmo reported the hottest temperature in Marin yesterday with a high of 102, while in Woodacre, the mercury climbed to 100 sizzling degrees. Fairfax registered a high of 93 degrees; Novato, 95.
"No Smoking" signs were posted in Muir Woods National Monument for the first time since November, 1959. Supt. Frederick M. Martischang said the signs would be removed when the humidity and temperature dropped. Visitors to the monument totaled 11,579 for the three-day holiday with 4,197 visitors yesterday.

The North Marin Water District reported today residents are holding consumption of water during the present shortage at least 30 per cent below normal.
Normal use of water this time of year is 3,500,000 gallons a day, but the present consumption rate under rationing is 2,500,000, it was reported.
Jerome B. Gilbert, district manager, said water consumption has been off as much as 40 per cent since water restrictions were started Aug. 15.
"Even with the winds and hot weather, the people of the area did not increase their use of water very much," Gilbert said.

Doherty Drive Finally Open For Traffic

Redwood High School students were able to drive from Magnolia Avenue to the school this morning—on the first day of school—via Doherty Drive.
The extension of Doherty Drive which had given workmen trouble since it began slipping into the slough of Corte Madera Creek on Aug. 3 was open for traffic today.
Caution signs are posted around the area.
The road has been topped with a tar base except for the 225-foot section which has been slipping. A 25-mile-per-hour speed limit sign has also been erected.

Larkspur City Manager Ronald E. Piper has said the slipping area would not be paved immediately. He said this area would be given a temporary oil sealing for the winter.

RUSSIA EXPLODES 3rd NUCLEAR BOMB

Action Scuttles Allied Hope Soviets Will Accept Proposal To End Testing

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL
Russia exploded a third nuclear device early today and promptly scuttled optimism it would accept a British-American proposal to end such blasts in the atmosphere by Saturday.
The Atomic Energy Commission in Washington said the yield of the latest explosion was in the low to intermediate range. This was about the same as the last two devices set off by the Russians—the first last Friday, the second yesterday. (See also story, page 2.)
Until now, the West had retained a measure of optimism that Moscow might agree to the suggestion he and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan made Sunday.
But the new test explosion and first Soviet comments on the Kennedy-Macmillan offer to ban atmospheric nuclear blasts changed this feeling to gloom.
President John F. Kennedy conferred for 45 minutes this morning with Atomic Energy Commission Chairman Glenn Seaborg and Deputy Secretary of Defense Roswell G. Gilpatric.
In London, Macmillan and his cabinet met for more than two hours.

Authoritative sources in London said comments published by Radio Moscow and the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia indicated Russia would reject the Western offer on suspension of atmospheric tests—if it bothered to answer at all.
Both Izvestia and Radio Moscow claimed that only total disarmament could solve the problem.
The early optimism was reported despite the Washington announcement yesterday of the second of the current series of Soviet nuclear test explosions in the air over Central Asia.

DeGaulle Backs Allied 'Force' To Hold Berlin

PARIS (UPI)—President Charles De Gaulle said today the Western Allies must hold their positions in Berlin "by force if necessary."
He told a news conference attended by 700 reporters at the Elysee Palace that the Western powers "have no better means of serving world peace than by remaining upright and firm."
De Gaulle also indicated France would be willing to contribute to any steps toward nuclear disarmament and said the Geneva test ban talks should be part of a wider conference on disarmament.

Bongo Player In Fire Gets Probation

Bongo-drummer Victor Andrew Gipson, 27, who set fire to his own home in Tamalpais Valley last March, drew three years' probation today and must make restitution for the damage caused by the fire.
Gipson was sentenced by Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. in Marin Superior Court.
The insurance company had to pay out $3,500 for fire damage to the home at 363 Pinehill Road, which was owned by Gerald C. Kott of Mill Valley.
Carl Shapiro, attorney for Gipson, said domestic troubles and social conditions caused Gipson to set fire to the building.

Report Of Engineer Accepted By 9-4 Vote

By CHAPIN A. DAY
Golden Gate Bridge District directors today killed the possibility of putting rapid transit on the bridge.
By a vote of nine to four, they accepted the recommendation of their consulting engineer, Clifford E. Paine, that "rapid transit trains be not allowed to operate over the bridge."

In accepting Paine's report they rejected a plea by the Bay Area Rapid Transit District that a board of review study the reports submitted by Paine and the transit district's engineer, Carl H. Gronquist.

After the decision, Adrien J. Falk, president of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District, told the bridge district directors: "You've taken a terrible responsibility on yourselves in that you are eliminating Marin County from the rapid transit district. You've based your decision on the fact that one man is infallible."
"NO THREAT"
"Don't consider this a threat, but we can't let this matter rest."
Falk said he would consult with the transit district board on petitioning the Marin and San Francisco Boards of Supervisors to jointly engage an impartial engineering board of review to study the two reports.

The directors today had before them resolutions from Marin and Napa County supervisors and San Francisco Mayor George Christopher urging them to appoint the review board.
The battle to adopt Paine's report was led by Peter Gasner of Napa and Leland S. Murphy of Marin. Murphy demanded, "Is rapid transit more important than lives and this bridge?"

ABLE MAN
He said that at the time the bridge board voted to hire Paine, not one director indicated that Paine was not "the most able man alive to decide if it could carry rapid transit."
"Can any director in his own mind conscientiously go against Paine?" Murphy asked.
Director George Anderson of Ukiah, who said he was "possibly the last director who helped in forming the bridge district," said, "The record clearly shows that if the bridge is designed to carry rapid transit, it must be made before construction... I was told the idea was rejected because of added costs."
This idea was reinforced by director William D. Hadler of San Francisco, whose first year and a half as director was

Airman Shot In Abdomen Accidentally

Airman 2/C Leonard Odell Lewis, 18, of Hamilton Air Force Base was in critical condition today at Marin General Hospital from an accidental gunshot wound through his abdomen.

He was shot about 5 p.m. yesterday inside his car when a companion tried to unload their rifle. Their .30-30 carbine discharged, sending the bullet through the front seat and into Lewis's back near the spine. The bullet came out the front and lodged in Lewis's left arm.
His condition was reported as "poor" this morning.

SHOOTING GULLS
In the car with Lewis were Dennis Howard Beachler, 18, of Modesto, a service station worker, and John Charles Wright, 9, of 1566 South Novato Boulevard. They had been shooting at sea gulls from the car on Olema Road near Bolinas.

Deputy Sheriff Raymond L. von Savoye said Beachler was unloading the rifle in the back seat when the gun went off. When Lewis slumped over in the front seat, they stopped a passing motorist, who led them to Bill's Superette in Stinson Beach. William Hoffman of Bill's Superette called the sheriff for help. William Sherkey of Stinson Beach then drove the victim to Pan Toll Ranger Station on Mount Tamalpais, where Marin Ambulance took the victim and rushed him to the hospital.

FIRST AID
Dr. Warren C. Breidenbach of Stinson Beach gave the victim first aid at Stinson Beach. Sheriff's Inspectors Carl Sears and Harold Slezzer questioned Beachler and the 9-year-old boy. The officers said they are convinced it was an accident.

Airman Accidentally Shoots Himself

A/C Jose Garcia of the 78th Field Maintenance Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base was reported in satisfactory condition at the base hospital today, recovering from an accidental gunshot wound suffered Sunday.
Garcia was shot in the right thigh when a .22 caliber pistol fired as he was loading it at his home on San Jose Boulevard in Raphael Village, Air Force authorities reported.

West Fears Red Nuclear Terror Move

GENEVA (AP)—Western Diplomats at the Geneva test ban conference fear the Soviet Union may be about to unleash a campaign of nuclear terror to intimidate the world's uncommitted nations.

They said yesterday's meeting of the conference left little hope that the Kremlin will accept the last-minute proposal by the United States and Britain to ban all nuclear explosions in the atmosphere without any special control machinery.

U.S. delegate Charles C. Stelle and Sir Michael Wright of Britain gave Semyon K. Tsarapkin, their Soviet counterpart at the conference, until next Saturday to reply to the Western offer. The implication was that the conference would collapse unless Moscow showed some interest in the proposal.

Tsarapkin's initial reply indicated a Soviet rejection. He read into the record the 6,000-word Soviet statement issued last Thursday explaining Moscow's reasons for resuming tests.

Western diplomats stressed that Moscow's decision to resume testing, and the nuclear blasts in Siberia that followed, made it plain that the Soviet Union is no longer out to woo the nonaligned countries over to Moscow's position on testing.

They said Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev may instead decide to stage a gigantic nuclear blast in outer space to underscore his recent threats that his nuclear superpowers can be delivered by Soviet rockets to any point on the globe.

EMISSARIES PICKED

Nonaligned Leaders Draft A-Ban Appeal

BELGRADE (AP)—Leaders of non-aligned nations today completed drafting an urgent appeal to President John F. Kennedy and Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev to meet soon and negotiate a settlement of the cold war before it erupts into a nuclear holocaust.

Informed sources said the appeal would be sent by the 25 nations meeting here "within the next 24 hours."

The sources said the conference would follow this up by sending personal emissaries—President Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana to Moscow and President Sukarno of Indonesia and President Modibo Keita of Mali to Washington.

Indian Premier Jawaharlal Nehru also is flying to Moscow tomorrow for previously planned talks with Khrushchev and will meet later with Kennedy in Washington.

The message to Khrushchev and Kennedy was said to be short but couched in urgent terms. It was to be transmitted through U.S. Ambassador George F. Kennan and Soviet Ambassador Alexi Yepishchev either tonight or at the conclusion of the conference which may extend until tomorrow.

U.S. Student Gets Jail For Spying In Russia

MOSCOW (AP)—A 23-year-old Fulbright scholar from the University of Pennsylvania has pleaded guilty to spying in Russia and was sentenced to eight years in prison, the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia reported today.

Marvin Makinen, a native of Chassel, Mich., whose family now lives at Ashburnham, Mass., was tried yesterday by a military court in Kiev, capital of the Ukraine.

A similar court sentenced American U-2 pilot Francis Gary Powers to 10 years imprisonment last year. Tass News Agency disclosed yesterday that Makinen, who was attending West Berlin's Free University on a U.S. government scholarship, had been arrested in the Ukraine on July 27.

He was accused of "taking pictures of a military objective" while travelling across eastern Europe as a tourist. (Makinen's sister, Mrs. Carroll H. Arnold, said in Westminster, Mass., today that he had left Berlin this summer on a student tour.

"I'm afraid what they might do," she said, "because he is so intelligent." (She said Makinen attended the University of Pennsylvania for three years and transferred last summer to the University at West Berlin for graduate work in science.

(He was described as a brilliant scholar who could speak nine languages.) U.S. embassy officials had sought permission to see Makinen, whose arrest was disclosed only yesterday.

Meeting Planned

The Parks and Recreation Commission of the Marinwood Community Services District will hold an open meeting Thursday to discuss the proposed bond issue for the purchase of the 10-acre site in Marinwood for the new recreation center. The meeting will be at 8 p.m. in Mary Silveira School.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Nixon's Hole In 1

WEST LOS ANGELES (UPI)—"It's the greatest thrill of my life," said former Vice President Richard M. Nixon with a grin, "even better than being elected."

Nixon had just scored a hole-in-one at the Bel-Air Country Club, using a five-iron on the 155-yard third hole.

He was playing with actor Randolph Scott, former California Rep. Donald Jackson and a friend, C. G. Rebozo of Miami, Fla.

"This must have been my lucky day," Nixon said. "I used one of my old 'Mr. Vice President' golf balls for luck."

More Social Security

WASHINGTON (UPI)—More than 3.7 million Americans, including former slaves and veterans of the Indian wars, will get bigger social security checks this week.

Under the liberalized social security benefits enacted by Congress earlier this year, one out of every four persons drawing social security will get a bigger check.

The oldest of the beneficiaries, Charlie Smith of Polk City, Fla., will get a $7 raise to $47 a month. Smith, 118 years old, was seized off the coast of Liberia when he was 12 and sold in the New Orleans slave market in 1855.

20 Dead In Crash

HUAMANTLA, Mexico (AP)—A truck loaded with federal power commission workers smashed into a store front yesterday, killing 20 persons, police reported.

Thirteen other persons were reported in critical condition.

Police said the truck's brakes apparently failed as it entered Huamantla on a down grade and the heavy vehicle was traveling about 50 miles an hour when it hit. The driver was killed.

Soviet Comeback

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (AP)—Soviet and other Communist newsmen are drifting back to the Congo capital from the Lumumbist stronghold of Stanleyville and expect their embassies to follow within two weeks.

Last week Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev sent a message to Prime Minister Cyrille Adoula seeking to re-establish diplomatic relations with the Leopoldville government. Adoula replied that he would be happy to be friends.

Soviet diplomats were expelled from Leopoldville almost a year ago.

Volcano Erupts

LONDON (AP)—A volcano on the Caspian Sea floor about 30 miles from the oil center of Baku erupted violently yesterday, spewing rock and mud out of the water and gas flames to a height of 650 feet, Moscow radio reported.

It said rain water gathered yesterday was 10 times more radioactive than rain water gathered the day before although far from being dangerous.

The bureau predicted contamination would continue to increase in the next few days.

More Identified

CHICAGO (AP)—FBI agents and laboratory technicians, working through the holiday weekend, have positively identified 73 of the bodies of the 78 persons killed in the TWA Constellation crash Friday.

Twenty-two more bodies were identified yesterday.

The climax will come Saturday with the selection of a successor to Miss America 1961—Nancy Anne Fleming of Montague, Mich.

Gas Grenades Thrown

BERLIN (AP)—An American patrol, sprayed by East German police with a high pressure water hose last night, answered with tear gas grenades that sent the Communists scurrying.

The incident on the sealed-off sector border at Heidelberg Strasse was reported by West Berlin police.

The Eastern police apparently felt the patrol—an officer and two soldiers in a Jeep—was too close to the walled frontier and showed their displeasure by opening up with the water hose. The Americans tossed two grenades across the border and the Communist police ducked into a doorway until the smoke lifted.

Foster 'In State'

MOSCOW (AP)—The body of William Z. Foster, veteran U.S. Communist leader, lay in state today in the Hall of Columns in Moscow's trade union house.

The 80-year-old American Red, three times his party's candidate for president of the United States, died in a Moscow sanitarium Friday.

Burial announcements have not been announced.

Triplet Boys

LEBANON, Tenn. (AP)—Mrs. Donald Spears of nearby Gallatin, Tenn., born 18 years ago on Labor Day, gave birth to triplets at a hospital on Labor Day.

Hospital authorities said the babies, all boys weighing more than four pounds each, are "doing well."

"We were expecting twins," said Spears, 21, a machinist. "We sure were surprised when they turned out to be three."

The Spears also have two daughters, aged 27 months and 17 months.

Russia Sets Off Second Nuclear Bomb

Explosion About Same Size As Hiroshima Blast

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Soviet Union set off a relatively small nuclear explosion in the atmosphere of Central Asia yesterday, the second since it announced last Wednesday that it was resuming tests.

The U.S. Atomic Energy Commission said the explosion was equivalent to about 20,000 tons of TNT—about the size of the atomic bomb exploded over Hiroshima in 1945. It was believed to be smaller than the explosion Russia touched off in the same area Friday.

State Department Press Officer Joseph W. Reap said in response to questions that the new test was not regarded as a rejection of the joint U.S.-British appeal for a three-power agreement against nuclear tests in the atmosphere.

'MORE LIKELY'

"It seems more likely that the incident is unrelated in view of the time element," he said. But some State Department officials, pointing out that the proposal was delivered to the Soviet Embassy here Sunday, Reap said.

The testing area was about 1,650 miles south of Moscow.

Like last Friday's announcement, the Atomic Energy Commission statement did not disclose how the test was detected.

U.S. atomic experts noted that the two tests have involved much smaller devices than those which Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev boasted about in announcing that tests would resume.

TACTICAL WEAPONS

But the experts would have been surprised had Russia actually started testing bombs as big as 100 megatons—equivalent to 100 million tons of TNT—such as Khrushchev mentioned. The belief here is that Russia, like the United States, has plenty of big bombs, but is trailing the United States in smaller tactical weapons for battlefield use. The relatively small explosions lend weight to such a theory.

But one U.S. source pointed out that it is "always possible they are testing small devices intended to serve as triggers for giant thermonuclear weapons."

The test was the 57th Soviet nuclear explosion compared to 152 U.S. tests. The last U.S. nuclear test was in October, 1958.

HAZARDS FEARED

Airlines Jittery Over Corridor

BERLIN (AP)—The three Western airlines flying to West Berlin are growing jittery over the Soviet and East German Communist threats to control the three air corridors they have been using for almost 16 years.

Pan American, British European Airways and Air France are pondering how long they can continue to fly to airfields in the Communist-surrounded city.

East Germany's Red regime, backed by the Soviets, has made threatening noises and even suggested this civilian travel be directed to their own East Berlin airport, Schoenefeld.

The men who fly the planes say the Communists could control the corridors—and force their companies to stop flying—without using fighter planes.

The East Germans could break into the radio navigation beam, creating a hazardous blank for the pilot landing or taking off. Or the Soviets could withdraw their personnel from the four-power air safety center that polices the corridors. That would turn the air over Berlin into something of a jungle.

In either case, said one flying officer, the safety hazard would be too great for the companies to continue flying.

Flying to Berlin already is tricky enough, the pilots contend. They are forced to fly no higher than 10,000 feet and inside a corridor that gives no room for error.

Berlin is a foggy area in November and December. That is the period this year when the Soviets claim they are going to solve the German problem with a peace treaty. The East Germans say they then will be the arbiters of traffic to West Berlin—by land, sea and air.

German Reds Attempting To Kill West News

BERLIN (UPI)—The Communists moved today to stop the flow of western news over the airwaves to East Germany's 17 million people.

Banners proclaiming "an end to listeners of Western transmitters" were put up throughout East Berlin and East Germany.

The two million members of the Communist Youth Organization were directed to go through every community starting this morning and report all television antennas aimed at Western transmitters.

The campaign, building up for several days, was aimed immediately at television because this is the easiest to check. Since Western and Communist TV transmitters are located in different areas, the direction the receiver antennas are pointed shows what stations are tuned in.

The Communists, by putting a wall across Berlin in the morning of Aug. 13, isolated most East Germans from Western newspapers and magazines. But they have been unable to jam Western radio and television stations without interfering with their own stations.

It is possible that the next step the Communists will take will be to make it a crime to listen to Western stations.

Evidence brought back by visitors to the Leipzig fair which opened over the weekend indicated the Communists were meeting resistance to their campaign.

One Western newsman said an East German whose television antenna had been turned about by some enthusiastic Communist youths told him: "As soon as they left I went up to the roof and turned the antenna right back where it had been."

SIX FABULOUS WEEKS

Pretty 'Ambassador' Returns From Sweden

By CARLETON WILLIAMS
Margaret Deedy, 18, Redwood High School graduate, College of Marin enrollee and doubtless one of the prettiest "ambassadors" ever sent abroad, returned home from Sweden last week.

Her trip, which began last June under sponsorship of the Experiment in International Living, included both business and pleasure.

The pleasure derived from six "fabulous" weeks of travel, food, fishing, vacationing, dancing and laughing with her Swedish "family": Mrs. Harriet Hook (pronounced Hewk) and her three children, Lars, 17, Eva-Lisa, 15, and Stig, 10.

The "business," which coincided with the pleasure, consisted of endless discussions with everyone she met, young and old, on the state of our world.

"My 'brother' Lars and I would sit up sometimes most of the night translating Swedish and American newspapers to one another," reported Margaret, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel F. Deedy of 1 Garden Road, Ross. She noted that the outlook of both countries' papers were "about the same."

Everyone with whom she talked, she said, showed enormous interest in the United States, especially in our domestic affairs, our opinion of Sweden and where we stand in world affairs.

She was admittedly embarrassed by their questions regarding the tense racial situation in the United States.

"They couldn't understand discrimination existing in a democracy," she said, "I tried to be as frank as I could. I told them I was shocked too, and as amazed as they."

"But I told them the situation isn't so bad that it can't and won't be solved. After all, it isn't as if everyone is against the Negroes."

In turn she touched on the Swede's two national tender spots: their "neutrality" and the fact they allowed the Nazi to "march through Sweden into Norway" during World War II.

Those to whom she talked assured her, she reported, that never again would an aggressor be permitted to use Sweden to invade one of their neighbors. Their country's neutrality, they explained, was primarily for the protection of Finland. The neutrality would end if they were ever invaded, they promised.

Margaret's impressions generally of Swedish teen-agers were:

The young people are more conservative than their elders and will vote out many Socialist reforms when they come of voting age.

They are more serious about music than their American counterparts, preferring "good jazz — men like Goodman and Armstrong" to the rock and roll so popular in America.

Swedish teen-agers are "more immature" as regards looking toward their future—jobs and life—than those in America. ("Probably because the state provides them with so much they feel they don't have to worry.") At the same time, Margaret said, the young people there are more mature "physically and socially" than the same age group here.

"I will never forget them," she said, recalling their warmth, their friendliness, their reserved charm.

"When I think of Sweden, I think of rolling hills and bays and quaint towns with cobblestones," she said.

"But most of all, I think of 'my family' there."

No New Taxes, Balanced Budget Sound Good

It was exceedingly pleasing to hear Gov. Edmund G. Brown tell assembled big-wigs in Sacramento that "there will be no request for new taxes in the budget which I submit to the next session of the legislature."

He also promised a balanced budget. Being an election year, it was most likely that every effort would be made to avoid new taxes in 1962. But there had been well-founded rumors that a 100 million dollar deficit was in the offing if new demands on the taxpayers were not made.

The governor scotched these rumors "unequivocally." He charged the estimates were "plucked false from the air," and he complained that his critics "can't seem to decide whether to complain of surpluses or deficits."

This we don't understand. We reserve the right to complain about both, Governor Brown. We don't have to decide whether we favor surpluses or deficits.

As we understand the role of state government, it should be run without profit—no surpluses—and without going into debt—no deficits. When you run up surpluses, governor, you are charging the taxpayers too much for the services they are getting. If you have a deficit, you are passing on to the next group of taxpayers some of the costs that should be paid today.

State government is not an agency which should pile up great reserves, taxpayers' money just sitting there doing nothing. Much better it should be in the taxpayers' pockets, in circulation improving the whole of the economy of the state and thus directly improving the government's financial position as well.

But, Governor, whether the "no new taxes, a balanced budget" pledge is a re-election gimmick or not, we like it. Forced into this position by political necessity, your department heads may be better able to follow the lead of your late director of motor vehicles in making substantial savings in department operations without reducing service to the public. Whenever fat is cut from the body politic, the public benefits.

We agree with you, Governor Brown, that "regardless of party, we must join to insist on honest estimates and equitable financing of the state's operations."

THREE MINUTES A DAY

HE TRUSTED THE FIREMAN

A frightened father threw his screaming 4-year-old daughter off the 5th floor of a burning apartment house — right into the arms of a waiting fireman on the 4th floor of a nearby building.

Then the fireman ordered the 140-pound man to jump into his arms. He did, and landed with his hands on the shoulders of his rescuer, who caught him under the armpits. Both men toppled over on the rooftop but neither suffered any apparent injury.

Put yourself for a moment in the position of the man who stood on that smoke-blackened rooftop, wondering whether he could trust the fireman below to make a good catch of his child. Would you place that much confidence in the ability of another human being?

None of us can be sure, but this incident does point up the need for mutual confidence in other men. The example of Christ, who freely gave His life for all, should impel us to be worthy of other men's trust, and lead us to rely on them when the need arises.

"The Lord is the protector of my life: of whom shall I be afraid?" (Psalm 26:1) Direct my words and actions, O Lord God, so that I may always build up understanding between men.

Greatest Victory Of Our Time Is Being Won In Laboratory

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail.

The greatest victory of our time is being quietly won in the laboratory, not on the noisy battlefield. . . . Medical research has saved an estimated 2,230,132 lives since 1944, more than were lost in all the wars the United States ever fought.

Prosperity note: U.S. banks last year handled 13 billion checks.

Whatever happened to cash? Is everybody mad at it?

Here's something to be grateful for: Nine out of 10 men who start to grow a beard give up within a week.

Did you know vanilla comes from one of more than 20,000 varieties of orchids? . . . Vanilla is still the most popular ice cream flavor, outselling all other flavors combined.

Tip to tourists: In Michigan the road to Hell is paved with more than good intentions. . . . You can go to Hell there by driving to it from a town called Paradise.

Women are invading en masse outdoor sports once popular chiefly with men. . . . Fishing is a big example. . . . one out of four anglers now wears lipstick.

Our quotable notables: "To the average man, doomed to some banal and sordid drudgery all his life long, women offer the only grand hazard he ever encounters. Take them away and his existence would be as flat and secure as that of a milk cow."—H. L. Mencken.

Odd legislation: In Sweden it once was against the law to drink coffee. . . . In early 17th century England women were banned from becoming either druggists or doctors.

Signs of the times: This one was posted in a California awning store: "Come in, and get the shadiest deal in town!"

Had your eyes checked lately? It is believed that nearly 1.25 million Americans have glaucoma without knowing it . . . and may lose their sight if untreated.

Prolific presidents: John Tyler had the most children of any White House tenant—15 by two wives. . . . William Henry Harrison led in later descendants. . . . He had 48 grandchildren and 106 great grandchildren.

Those spicy Americans: We have only about one sixteenth of the global population, but we use almost a third of the world's output of pepper.

WISERACK of the week: Walter Slezak says he knows a bald man so two-faced he has to wear a four-piece!

Worth remembering: "Men have their faces on our money, but it's the women who have their hands on it."

YOU THINK you've got a weight problem? . . . Grizzly bears gain up to three pounds a day during the summer. . . . But unlike you, they can hibernate and sleep it off.

It was Dorothy Dix who observed, "Drying a widow's tears is one of the most dangerous occupations known to man."

Has 'Samson' Unruh Found His 'Delilah' In Gordon H. Winton

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—One of the biggest gossip items in political circles these days is whether the Samson of the California Democratic party, Assemblyman Jesse M. Unruh of Los Angeles, has run into some sort of Delilah in his bid to be the next speaker of the Assembly.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown is expected to announce the appointment this week of the present speaker, Ralph M. Brown (D-Modesto), to a new district court of appeal in Fresno. This creates the speakership vacancy. During the 1961 session of the legislature, Unruh collected something more than 50 pledged votes for himself to succeed Brown.

IN MANY WAYS, Unruh has been the No. 1 man in the Democratic Party in the state, largely because of his connections with the Kennedy administration in Washington. It's said that he has the final say on who is named to what federal position and it's said also that this has upset Governor Brown and Sen. Clair Engle more than somewhat.

In the legislature, "Big Daddy" Unruh has used his muscle without much restraint. So it's true that many people are fearful, if not awed by Unruh and, if through nothing more than wishful thinking, are glad to pass along the stories of an alleged loss of power by him.

THE STORY making the rounds now is that Assemblyman Gordon H. Winton, Jr., (D-Merced) now has 38 votes pledged to him and is finding quite a few other assemblymen sitting on the fence and ready to jump if he can show them they would make up the necessary majority of 40 votes needed.

Winton's name has been mentioned for the speakership before but, until recently, not too much attention was paid to it. However, his supporters now have some theories which make good capital gossip, whether or not they will stand up when the votes are counted.

The voting, incidentally, could come in early October. Previously, a vacancy in the office of speaker between sessions would have been filled by the speaker pro tempore. But Unruh's supporters secured passage of a rule change toward the end of the 1961 session, requiring the membership to gather in Sacramento in event of a vacancy and elect a new speaker.

Winton supporters claim the Unruh drive has fallen down for several reasons. They say too many people, including some statewide Democratic officers, and a number of local party workers, are afraid of Unruh. They note too that the bureaucracy of state government generally is afraid of Unruh because he has tread on many of their bureaucratic traditions.

ALSO, THEY SAY, Unruh is believed to have promised all of the committee chairmanship already. Unruh never has made any bones about his modus operandi, which is to have something the other man wants and to make a trade.

Thus a number of assemblymen feel the choice committee jobs already have been promised and there's nothing left over for them but gratitude. Winton reportedly has made no commitments of committee posts so their choice is to stay with Unruh where they are almost certain to get nothing, or to go with Winton where it's still wide open.

THEY POINT to the fact that Unruh has been calling members to ask them to remain on his team and that a third speaker candidate may be set up in the future to attempt to find the anti-Unruh support and split it. All of this, they say, points to a showing of weakness by the strongman.

In any event, it should be an interesting speakership election. Quite a number of assemblymen are going to run for congress; a number of others will face nearly certain defeat in 1962 because of the reshuffling of their districts. Thus a number of them will have little or nothing to lose in the speakership voting, so who knows which way they'll jump?

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Make Sure Victim Knows

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

Sentence was fixed lately for a Corte Madera woman on the possession of marijuana. Her roof top was lined with potted plants.

I'm for protecting the innocent. I'm also a lover of plants. I gratefully accept any plant given me.

How would one know what a marijuana weed was?

I lived in Southern California where marijuana was said to have grown in my neighbor's yard. Yet I would not recognize a weed of it were I paid to.

For the sake of justice, be sure the victim knows. She is a victim to judge. Righteous judgement.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

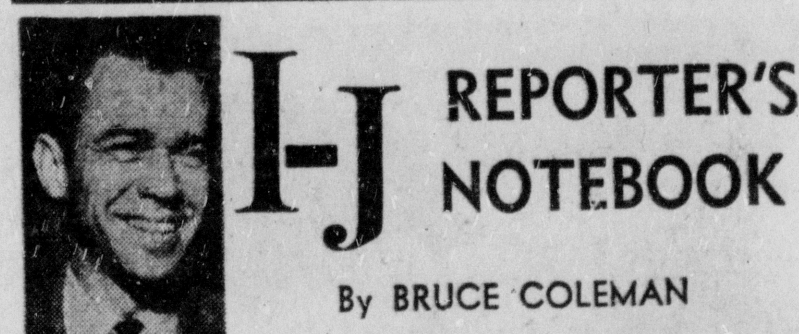

Retail booksellers are reported to be reasonably impractical fellows, but Jerome Beatty has spotted one that obviously is sharp as a tack. He's upped the sales of Louisa M. Alcott's Modern Library edition of "Little Women" to an average of 19 copies a day by putting a pile of the books in his window, topped by a vivid poster proclaiming "Four Young Girls Tell All!"

The London Daily Mail reported the sad saga of a model British husband yclept Richard Minns who was sentenced to one year in the clink for administering chloroform to his wife every night "for a period of weeks." Minns pleaded guilty to the charge but complained to the judge "he was just trying to keep the little woman quiet."

Several persons in court, added the reporter, expressed "genuine sympathy for the culprit."

A stout lady approached a lovely young salesgirl and inquired as to the whereabouts of the perfume counter. The salesgirl suggested politely, "Just walk this way, ma'am." "Hmpfh," commented the customer, "If I could walk that way, my dear, I wouldn't need perfume."

Words Must Be Sorted Fast And Straight, But Straight First

Please don't think the job of word-collecting is like gathering nuts in May. It isn't.

For one thing, words don't come sorted. They come right, wrong, straight, crooked, funny. You've got to sort them out.

In fact, it's tougher than that. You've got to sort them fast and straight, but straight first. If the word's wrong, 18 people will call you. And say so. If it's right, no one will call.

Word-collectors are physically odd. They have one ear which bends in, one which bends out. The reason is that most words are collected by telephone and the left ear, where you grip the telephone, bends in. The right out.

A FUNNY STORY is funny until it becomes unfunny. Sausalito Police Sgt. Stan Kelly captured a monkey and, when it wasn't claimed at the Humane Society, he was given the monkey for his own. That was the funny side.

Then Sgt. Kelly changed the monkey's name from Dimitri to Louie because Dimitri was too long. A few days later Kelly said, "I got rid of Louie." It seems he was indiscreet. "In the kitchen of all places," said Kelly. "And the guy I gave him to got rid of him, too. You know what he did to that guy?"

"No," we said.

"He left Louie on the sun porch all night and the next morning Louie had pulled all the plants out of their pots. How do you like that?" Not funny, we said.

YOU HAVE TO watch crooked words and words that bite. Crooked words are those you get from "an official source" or from "the horse's mouth." Broken down, crooked words mean something else. You can't write a story with crooked words. So you unbend them as best you can.

Words that bite back are such as these sent to our city editor by teletype: "200 youngsters were asked to leave the area by special police officer Robin Wheeler, who said they had come to swim in Cascade Dam."

Back came the bite on the teletype: "You can't swim in a dam. You swim in water or a pool or in a reservoir. A dam is usually cement."

Here's a horse story, wrong because we couldn't find out who owns the horse:

George Beedle, Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce secretary, reported today while working at his desk, a horse looked in at him through the door. Horse seemed happy, tied to tree on Lytton Square. Girl came, patted horse.

"Your horse?"

"No," she said.

Soon owner, who had been in store, came. "A nice young man. He told me his name, but I forgot it. He rode away."

"What did you think when you first looked up and saw the horse, George?"

"I thought it was a horse," said George.

WE WENT UP on The Mountain to Throckmorton Ridge to meet county fire warden Frank Raymond. A good type. Magnificent view, like wine, we said. "I love it here," said Raymond.

He said he watches TV, plays pinocle, feeds the raccoons and reads books besides fighting fires.

Also at the station are firemen Manuel Lopes of Muir Beach and Kenny Ray of San Geronimo. The men are on four days, two off, then five on and three off.

"Had a patch of petunias in front of the fire barn, but deer ate them down to the nub," said Raymond. "We put in ice plant."

SUMMER, THE FIRE season, usually lasts from May to December. "When the wind blows hard, we shut the doors and stay in or we'd be blown off the mountain."

Raymond's wife and four children live in San Rafael.

How does your wife like this separation business? "She probably loves it— to get rid of me." Then he added, "She visits me every day or so."

The best type of words for word collectors. Straight and simple.

JOSEPH ALSOP

Pattern Of Republican Presidential Races Beginning To Take Shape

WASHINGTON — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon has just completed a Washington reconnaissance. With no significant exceptions, the local Republican elders advised Nixon to run for governor of California.

Some added that Nixon's position of leadership in the party would be sadly undermined if he ducked the governorship race.

The competition, from Democratic Gov. Pat Brown, is at present expected to be fairly lackadaisical. Yet the advice Nixon got in Washington, although similar to the advice he has been getting in California, was decidedly unpalatable to him.

He does not want to run for the governorship, partly because the office itself does not irresistibly attract him, and partly because he would naturally like to wait a little longer before making another hard race.

YET IT APPEARS likely that the reluctant Nixon will finally announce his gubernatorial candidacy when his self-set deadline comes in the middle of this month.

Thus one of the major elements in the coming Republican pattern appears to be about to jell.

As to element number two, the situation of Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York can be considered as having jelled already, barring a political miracle to reverse the present outlook.

ROCKEFELLER is virtually certain to win re-election by a good majority, if only for want of effective opposition. He just may make an important gain from the moon-struck mayoralty fight in New York.

As for the Republican pattern's third and last major element, Sen. Barry Goldwater's desire to impose an all-out Southern-oriented strategy on his party has been examined in yesterday's report. But this is not the end of the Goldwater story.

Another important chapter could be glimpsed during one of Goldwater's recent visits to California. Here an avowed member of the neo-Fascist John Birch Society, youthful Rep. John Russell, is threatening to challenge moderate Republican Sen. Thomas Kuchel in the party primary.

Russell's chances to beat Kuchel appear to be minimal. Kuchel is Goldwater's colleague and deputy Senate leader. And Goldwater is chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee. Hence a word from Goldwater favoring Kuchel ought to have been a matter of course. He was pressed to say this word. Yet he refrained quite ostentatiously from doing so.

GOLDWATER in fact hopes to be helped by the victories of Goldwater-type Republicans, just as Rockefeller hopes to be helped by victories of Republicans of the Rockefeller type. Furthermore, while Goldwater has little chance of this kind of outcome in California, he has an excellent chance in other parts of the country.

If this happens, Goldwater will be a third formidable contender. And his emergence as a serious candidate will add violent ideological inflammation to the coming contest.

"Very common these days . . . many Americans are experiencing hypertension . . . over Berlin . . . Cuba . . . nuclear war . . . the possibility of Babe Ruth's home run record being broken . . ."

East Bay Getting New Chevie Plant

DETROIT (AP)—Ground breaking for new Chevrolet and Fisher Body plants in Fremont has been set for Sept. 19, General Motors announced yesterday.

The plants, to be built on a 392-acre site next to Nimitz Freeway in Southern Alameda County are expected to be completed by July 1963.

Edward N. Cole, general manager of Chevrolet, and E. C. Klotzburger, general manager of Fisher Body, said both cars and trucks will be built in the Chevrolet plant. The Fisher plant will make car bodies.

Ballet Classes Set To Open In Fairfax

Mrs. Maybelle Pinson of Sleepy Hollow announced today her classes in ballet will open at St. Rita's Hall in Fairfax tomorrow from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. for children from four years up.

A pre-ballet session will be offered the 4 to 6 year olds to encourage rhythm and self-expression. An adult exercise class will also be offered.

A.F. Revolt Blocking Goulart Inauguration

BRASILIA, Brazil (AP)—An air force rebellion today blocked leftist Joao Goulart's path to the presidency and plunged Brazil back into more political confusion.

Stunned congressmen routed out of bed for an extraordinary 17-minute postmidnight session were given the chilling news that air force dissidents apparently were determined to shoot down Goulart's plane should he try to reach this hinterland capital to be sworn in as president.

Acting President Ranieri Mazzilli telephoned Goulart in his southern stronghold of Porto Alegre advising him not to fly to Brasilia today. Mazzilli said the vice president's safe arrival could not be guaranteed.

Goulart had made plans to fly here to be sworn in after the nation's three military chiefs agreed to let him become a figurehead president under a new parliamentary system vesting the real power in a prime minister elected by Congress.

It had been expected that Goulart would be inaugurated sometime this week to succeed Janio Quadros, whose resignation in a huff Aug. 25 touched off the prolonged crisis and brought the nation close to civil war.

The three service chiefs had blocked Goulart's succession, contending his leftist tendencies would open the way to Communist turmoil. They yielded Sunday night.

Word of the airman's revolt came from Senate President Auro Moura Andrade, who told Congress Air Minister Grum Moss had said he no longer had control of his men.

Attended Convention

Teen-Agers Riot Over Weekend

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
Booze-fueled youthful hijinks erupted into violent disturbances in a half dozen states over the Labor Day weekend. Police arrested hundreds, aided in some cases by fire hoses and snarling dogs.

In New York's Harlem, the annual West Indian Day parade ended in a free-swinging club and fist brawl involving 300 overheated citizens and scores of policemen. Seventeen were injured, including nine police.

AT HYANNIS
At Hyannis, Mass., a few miles from where President John F. Kennedy was weekend-ing at his Cape Cod home, 140 young people were arrested for disorderliness or drunkenness. Another 32 were arrested at Falmouth.

The biggest disturbance was at Ocean City, Md., where 2,000 teen-agers joined in a wild beach party—well-advertised in advance.

Youngsters driving into the resort earlier in the weekend had signs on their cars reading: "Fill your flask and come to the second annual Ocean City riot Sept. 1-3 at 9th St." There had been a riot there last Labor Day.

A crowd of 1,500 at Lake George, N.Y., was the most riotous of the lot. A police captain described it as the worst he had seen in 11 years.

FIRE HOSES
Fire hoses were brought into play as the screaming, beer-can-throwing youths—many of them wearing college sweatshirts.

At Clermont, Ind., near Indianapolis, 53 state troopers, 20 sheriff's deputies and scores of civil defense police were needed to scatter 150 teen-agers chanting "we want booze, we want booze."

The jails got so overcrowded at Wildwood, N.J., that officials had to borrow facilities in a neighborhood town.

At Hampton Beach, N.H., some 500 teen-agers poured into streets where they disrupted traffic and jeered police who asked them to move on.

San Rafael School Board Meeting Without Agenda

The San Rafael Board of Education will meet tonight without an agenda, because of the absence of Acting Supt. Raymond J. Simpson.

Simpson notified the board last week that he would be unable to prepare for the meeting because of the death of his father in Glendale. He suggested it might be postponed.

However, no postponement was ordered. Board members C. Paul Bettini and Bella Aaron indicated they had matters to come up for discussion tonight. The meeting therefore remains scheduled for 7:30 p.m. in the district office at 215 Mission Avenue.

Mrs. Aaron said she expected a report on progress of the screening committee toward selection of a new superintendent, and on the status of the Terra Linda School swimming pool, to be among matters discussed at tonight's meeting.

Tam Schools Chief Back From Clinic

Tamalpais Union High School District Supt. Chester G. Carlisle returned last week from a three-week, nationwide clinic for school superintendents at Columbia University.

In a written report to the district teachers, Carlisle said among the topics discussed were: Administrative theory, the small-city school and the economy of the 1960s, changes in education theory, teaching research, foreign languages, national educational goals, programming instruction and new trends in the teaching of reading.

Boy Says He Was Drunk When Teacher Beaten

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"I don't know what was on my mind" the night a Ross school teacher was killed, the youngest of four defendants testified at their murder trial today.

"I was drunk," 16-year-old Larry Magee testified on cross-examination.

Magee admitted "I pushed and shoved" school teacher William P. Hall, 27, "but I didn't hit him."

The youth said his hand was banded so he could not have closed his fist the night of April 29, when Hall was beaten and robbed in Dolores Park. Later, the unconscious teacher was run over by a "J" line street car.

Magee insisted he and his companions did not set out to rob and did not demand Hall's money. The four were charged with first degree murder because Hall was killed during the commission of a felony—robbery.

The witness said under cross-examination by Nicholas Deriman, assistant district attorney, that he organized the four-boy hunt to find homosexuals "and scare them." He said the trouble started at the teacher's angry response to his approach.

"How do you scare a homosexual?" Deriman asked.

"You form a ring around him and taunt him," Magee said.

The trial before a jury of nine women and three men is in its third week. The defense indicated that 17-year-olds William Castillo and Bob Hall would not take the stand in their own defense. The fourth accused, Michael Kilkenny, also 17, has testified.

Brawl Reported—Two Injured

A 16-year-old youth and a 23-year-old man were injured in what was reported as a brawl in the 200 block of Clorinda Street in San Rafael shortly after 12:30 a.m. today.

Treated for a cut under his left eye at San Rafael General Hospital was Louis D. Pierucci, 16, of 119 Greenwood Avenue, San Rafael. In satisfactory condition at the hospital was James R. Crabtree, 23, of 526 D Street, San Rafael, who suffered a mild concussion.

Police said they were called to the scene by Leonard S. Shepherd, 229 Clorinda Street, who reported he saw one person on the ground being stomped on.

Police found Pierucci lying on the ground and Crabtree and two other young men standing by. Pierucci and Crabtree told conflicting stories. No one was arrested.

Medic Exam For Mrs. Roosevelt

NEW YORK (UPI)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt enters the Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center today for a medical checkup.

The 76-year-old former first lady's secretary, Maureen Corr, said Mrs. Roosevelt expected to be at the center's Harkness Pavilion for several days to undergo "some tests." Miss Corr said she did not know the reason for the checkup.

"It's something that came up over the weekend," she said. "But Mrs. Roosevelt seems fine."

The Baby Was A Boy

Mrs. Patricia D'Elia Derenzo of Fairfax reported today she gave birth Aug. 31 in Marin General Hospital to a boy. She is the wife of Ronald Derenzo. In error the birth was reported yesterday as that of a girl.

Sentences Given In Hijack Try

OROVILLE (AP)—Bruce Britt, 40, of Smackover, Ark., was given maximum sentences today on three charges of attempted murder growing out of an attempt to hijack an airliner.

Superior Court Judge J. Frank Good sentenced the construction worker to 1 to 14 years in prison on each of the three counts, the terms to run consecutively.

The court again denied a defense plea to permit Britt to withdraw his guilty pleas and plead innocent by reason of insanity.

Britt told the court today he did not remember anything about the shooting and attempted stabbing during an attempt to hijack a Pacific Airways plane July 31 at Chico. He said previously he wanted to fly to Smackover to visit his second wife, Melba, and their young son.

He was sentenced for shooting ticket agent William Hoots, trying to shoot J. Albert Hutchinson, a San Francisco attorney, and attacking co-pilot Alan Wheeler with a switchblade knife.

Still pending before the grand jury is a possible charge in connection with the shooting of pilot Oscar Cleal, who was blinded in one eye and is recuperating at his home in Menlo Park.

TRANSIT

"(Joseph B.) Strauss repeatedly made this statement to me: 'Don't ever let them put a second deck or rapid transit on the bridge.'"

San Francisco directors Ben K. Lerer and Alvin F. Derre stressed that the decision facing the board was not whether to put transit on the bridge but to get more information about it.

Charles Reinking of Santa Rosa said, "We can't play with the lives of people and the safety margins of this bridge."

Dan London of San Francisco denied they were playing with lives or safety.

"We should get all the information," he said.

Only Phillips Davies of San Francisco joined Derre, Lerer and London in the final vote.

Murphy then stressed the need for full support by the bridge district of the state's half-million dollar study of a new crossing between San Francisco and Marin "which can be designed to carry rapid transit."

Auditions For Play

Stalled Auto Causes Accident On Highway 101

A stalled car, abandoned while its driver went to get gasoline caused a Highway 101 accident that injured three persons Saturday.

The driver of the stalled car, Arthur J. Martin, 28, Vallejo laborer, was subsequently cited for stopping on a highway, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Martin's car stalled on Highway 101 just south of Richardson Bay Bridge at 12:20 a.m. Saturday. Finding it was out of gasoline, he left it there while he searched for an all-night service station.

The car was struck in the rear by a 1960 station wagon driven by Theodore S. Luters, 42, of Redwood City, who said he came on the car suddenly in heavy traffic after making a turn.

Cecil Washington, Vallejo, passenger in Martin's car was not hurt. Luters was treated at Marin General Hospital for a bump on the head. His wife Betty, 42, suffered knee, wrist, chest and arm injuries. Their daughter Rebecca, 14, suffered ankle, elbow and left hip injuries.

RECREATION FOR MARINWOOD—This is artist's conception of swimming pool area in Marinwood Community Park, which would be financed by $405,000 bond issue to be presented to Marinwood Community Services District voters on Sept. 19. A public panel discussion of the proposal is set for Thursday at 8 p.m. in Silveira School.

Marinwood Community Park G.M. Strike Plan Discussion Set Thursday Deadline Set Tomorrow

County and state officials will join a Marinwood Community Services District panel Thursday at 8 p.m. for discussion of the $405,000 bond proposal scheduled for public ballot Sept. 19 for a Marinwood Community Park.

The panel will meet in the Mary F. Silveira School. It will include Robert Lagle of the county planning staff, Gladys Snyder of the division of recreation, and a representative from the county auditor's office.

Buel M. Snyder of the Marinwood Community Services District board said the officials will answer inquiries concerning: Cost per family, estimated currently at $30 per year more in taxes; estimated utility of a community park within the boundaries of the expected growth of the area, and the estimated operating expenses.

"The panel meeting will attempt to inform the people of the situation and bring them up-to-date," Snyder said. The meeting is sponsored by the Marinwood Park and Recreation Commission. A "fact sheet" explaining the need for the proposed fire and recreation facility will be distributed door-to-door tomorrow, he said.

The proposed site comprises 10½ acres intersecting Miller Creek and Lucas Valley roads, adjacent to 17 acres that may be jointly developed with the Dixie School District junior high school project. Of the additional area, 7.7 acres is proposed for a baseball diamond.

The bond, if passed, will also finance a firehouse, a community building, a park, a playground, and a swimming pool. Following a 15-month study of a master plan by Osmundson and Staley, landscape architects, the Community Services

District board agreed upon the $405,000 estimate as "adequate."

"This is the last land available in the area," Snyder said. "It's only a matter of time before all the land will be used up. We feel it'll never be any cheaper than it is now. We don't have a firehouse, and we are now using a shack out on the county farm adjacent to Lucas Valley at the end of Marinwood to house our fire fighting equipment."

The Community Building design has not been completed, Snyder said because the architects must wait for passage of the bond election. However, artist's sketches depict a structure with the fire house on the first floor and the community building recreation facilities located on the second floor.

"There won't be any possibility of interference with the fire fighting unit because the recreation area will be fenced off," he said.

The 10½-acre tract has seven acres of green turf area that will be used for a playing field, tennis court, park, and area walkways. The area has a parking reserve for 40 cars along the Miller Creek Road boundary.

DETROIT (UPI)—United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther said today the union and General Motors are still "extremely far apart" in contract negotiations and there will be no further extension of to-morrow's 10 a.m. strike deadline.

G.M. vice president and chief bargainer Louis G. Seaton said he has been in touch this morning with federal mediation service chief William E. Simkin but that the government has not so far asked for any new extension of the strike deadline.

Seaton indicated G.M. did not plan to make any new offer to the union before the strike deadline but said there was an area of "flexibility" in the firm's present offer that could provide the basis for a settlement.

Reuther, however, said that "unless G.M. is willing to provide its workers with the same benefits and protection" as secured in the union's pact with American Motors, "there will be a strike at 10 a.m. tomorrow."

Adjournment Fever Speeds Up Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress plans to tackle more work this week than it has in any full month this session.

Spurring this heavy load is the prospect of final adjournment by the end of next week.

Bills involving appropriations of billions of dollars, limited assistance for schools, and a wide range of other subjects are on the dockets of both the House and Senate.

Some of them are controversial enough to stir up several days' debate each under normal conditions.

But conditions aren't normal now. When adjournment fever sets in Congress can get a lot of work done in little time.

Both branches plan to pass a scaled-down school aid bill, now that hope has been abandoned for a more comprehensive program advocated by President John F. Kennedy.

The modified measure would continue federal help for public schools in areas where there has been a heavy influx of federal workers and would renew the student loan program. The House vote on the school bill is set for Wednesday, the Senate's for Thursday.

The House may pass today a bill appropriating $3,357,500 for the foreign aid program. It hopes to follow through on Thursday with a multibillion-dollar appropriation bill for federal public works projects. Except for a final catch-all measure, they are the last two money bills of the session.

The school bill tops a list of 24 measures on tomorrow's House program. Most are of secondary nature.

Before tackling its own school bill Thursday, the Senate will consider a measure creating a federal department of urban affairs.

Friday's main attraction in the Senate is a Mexican farm labor measure, followed on Saturday by the scheduled start of debate over changing the rules to make it easier to prevent filibusters. The filibuster argument might last a week or longer.

"We might be able to finish by the 14th or 15th of September," Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana told the Senate last week.

"If we can get the proper cooperation from the other body," Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana told the House, the middle of next week should be a good time for adjournment.

Gilmartin underwent surgery Sunday night for a severe cut he suffered on his right forearm when he tripped and fell at his home, 33 Coleman Drive. Hospital attendants said it would "be best" if he had no visitors this evening.

5,000 Men Battling Forest Fires

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A force of 5,000 men fought for the fourth day today to contain an outburst of forest, range and brush fires the length of California.

More than 150,000 acres have been burned over since Saturday in 170 fires that flared from San Diego in the south more than 700 miles to the north.

Forestry officials said damages would run to millions of dollars.

More than 150 structures, including a high school gym, private homes and a saw mill, have been gutted. Five persons died from fire-connected causes. The victims included two motorists, the pilot of a chemical bombing plane and two persons who died from heart attacks.

The Russian River resort area was hard hit as 6,000 forest acres burned around the town of Guerneville. About 80,000 acres of brush and range land were blackened to the south and east near Travis Air Force Base.

Two areas still threatened today were around Kelsey and Sutter Creek in the Mother Lode country.

Kelsey was hit Saturday, when the fire roared through the mountain town from its sawmill starting point and burned out seven houses. Yesterday the flames came back, driven by a perverse wind, and burned out three more. To date, 10,000 acres have been burned.

In Amador County south of Kelsey, a fire that already has engulfed 30,000 acres threatened the town of Volcano, where 500 fire fighters hoped for cooler temperatures and a break in the wind that has blown for three days.

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, Sept. 5, the 248th day of the year with 117 to follow in 1961.

The moon is approaching its new phase.

The morning star is Venus.

The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1774, the First Continental Congress assembled in Carpenter's Hall, Philadelphia.

In 1882, Labor Union members held the first Labor Day parade in the country. Some 10,000 workmen paraded in New York City.

In 1939, the U.S. Government proclaimed its neutrality in the European war.

A thought for today: Greek dramatist Aeschylus said: "Tis a trait common with men to entertain kind thoughts towards the weaker side."

CONFIRMING THEIR HOT SUSPICIONS

It was the hottest day of the year yesterday in Los Angeles—101 degrees. So a crafty photographer set up a small booth with a thermometer inside. He made these pictures of curious pedestrians as they paused to see just how warm it was. The camera was pointed through a small hole at the back of the booth. Hot as it was, Los Angeles enjoyed a smog-free day. (AP Wirephotos)

Brakes Put On Activities Of Highway Patrol

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Taking women for joyrides on patrol motorcycles.

Lending service revolvers for playthings.

Staging midnight hypnotism parties.

These are some of the charges on which five California Highway Patrol officers have been suspended or reprimanded, effective today.

Inspector Russell E. Fuson, CHP commander for the Los Angeles area, said the punitive action covered misconduct over a period of several years and involved a group of women the patrolmen called the "Coffee Date Kids," ranging in age from 18 to 22.

He said last night the men met most of the women after stopping them for traffic violations, then offering to withhold citations if they would have coffee in a nearby drive-in. All of the officers were assigned to duty in south Los Angeles districts.

Fuson said that at some of the parties the women were photographed wearing service uniforms, with belts and revolvers draped about them.

One young woman, the inspector said, admitted she carried a courtesy card protecting her against tickets. He said she also used the CHP radio dispatch system to make dates with her boy friend.

Fuson listed these disciplined officers:

Officer Tony Rios, suspended five days for incompetency, failure of good conduct and actions incompatible with good public service during and outside duty hours.

Officers Veale Fonville and Henry Hopkins, suspended three days for incompetency, inefficiency and misuse of state property.

Officers Lee Minkus and Max Straagle, officials reprimanded for acts incompatible with good public service.

Pension Cash Stolen

Thomas Joseph Wall, 824 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, told police today that while he was out of his room for five minutes emptying garbage, $95 which he had just put in a coffee can after cashing his pension check vanished.

Petition By Railroad Before Council Tonight

An informal public hearing on Northwestern Pacific Railroad's petition to abandon its Puerto Suello tunnel — and with it, rail connection between Ignacio and San Rafael — will headline tonight's meeting of the San Rafael City Council.

Another matter involving the railroad is also scheduled for action at the meeting, which will begin at 8 o'clock in the city hall.

After NWP blocked an application for a grade crossing at Auburn Street to connect Bret Harte with East San Rafael, city council and California Division of Highways worked out a compromise plan for realigning the railroad underpass at the end of Woodland Avenue to connect with what is now the Bellam Boulevard extension.

A petition for this, prepared

Court Appearance In Attack Case

Keith Vincent Buchignani, 32, butcher of 609 Gallerita Way, Santa Venetia, booked on suspicion of raping a 22-year-old housewife, was scheduled to appear in Marin Municipal Court this afternoon.

The woman told officers she and her husband had been friends of Buchignani for four years. She told Deputy Sheriff Ernest Nielsen that Buchignani went to her home in Santa Venetia Friday night and watched television with her husband. About 9 p.m., he went out for a pack of cigarettes, and she went with him. They went to the Gambit bar on North San Pedro Road, where they drank beer and danced. Instead of driving straight home, she said, he drove to La Brea Way and forcibly attacked her.

Buchignani was freed on $1,050 bail.

San Anselmo Girl Hurt In Accident

Arleigh Shirley Johnson, 21, of 416 Alameda De La Loma, Novato, was treated at Marin General Hospital early today for a cut face she suffered when a car she was driving struck a utility pole in San Anselmo.

The victim told police she had been to bed 36 hours prior to the accident, which happened on Sir Francis Drake near Cordone Drive.

PILL TAKING STARTS AT EARLY AGE

There's such a thing as too many vitamins.

Kirsten Black, 2, and brother Gordon, 3, found that out yesterday.

The two, children of Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Black of 710 Montecillo Road, Terra Linda, sampled some vitamin pills from a bottle at their home. They found them good and kept on sampling.

By the time their parents discovered the high-vitamin diet of the two, Kirsten and Gordon between them had swallowed about 30 of the tablets.

At San Rafael General Hospital, a doctor gave them something to make them disgorge the pills. They returned home no peppier than usual.

Business Sales Off $300 Million In July

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Commerce Department today reported business sales fell by 300 million dollars in July—the first setback since recovery from the recession began late last winter.

The sale drop from June lowered total deliveries to 58.4 billion dollars in July.

Kent Claims Nixon Doesn't Want To Run

WILLOWS OOD — A top California Democrat believes that former Vice President Richard M. Nixon doesn't want to make a bid for governor of California but must do so or "face political oblivion."

Roger Kent, chairman of the State Democratic Central Committee, told the Willows Daily Journal in an interview:

"I have long believed that Nixon does not want to run for governor, both because of the hazards to his career and because this isn't the job he wants anyway."

"He is vaguely aware of the many complex problems facing this fast-growing state and he must be aware of his own lack of knowledge and administrative experience."

Kent said that Nixon would prefer to try for the U.S. Senate but that incumbent Sen. Thomas Kuchel (R-Calif.) "will not take a dive as (former Gov. Goodwin J.) Knight did in 1958."

Kent laughed off a charge that top Democratic leaders met at a hideaway in Kent's home in Marin County to pick the slate for the 1962 election. "This is the first time our house has been called a hideaway," said Kent. "As a matter of fact, while (U.S. Sen.) Clair Engle (D-Calif.) was strolling along the main street to buy cigars at the local drug store, Gov. (Edmund G.) Brown was taking a swim and signing his autograph on a number of grubby pieces of paper for the neighborhood kids."

Aboard Destroyer

Delbert F. Worden, Navy fireman apprentice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Worden, 668 Cherry Street, Novato, is serving aboard the USS Edson, a destroyer, operating out of Long Beach with the First Fleet.

Storm Building Up To Hurricane Power

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Tropical storm Carla built up toward hurricane power today as she followed a slow nine-mile-an-hour course through the Caribbean, aimed at the border between Yucatan and British Honduras.

As the threat of Carla increased, Hurricane Betsy joggled a little to the west during the night, but not enough to indicate that she might ever menace the United States mainland.

In a noon advisory, the Miami Weather Bureau reported that Carla's highest winds had increased to 50 miles an hour and there was a possibility they would grow to hurricane force of 74 m.p.h. or greater during the day.

Giants Hope Jones Will Halt Their Losing Skein Tonight

Williams Goes For Dodgers

LOS ANGELES (UP) — The San Francisco Giants, still hopeful of staying alive in the National League pennant fight, attempt to snap a three-game losing streak tonight when they resume their series with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Don Drysdale, who hadn't beaten the Giants in three previous starts this year, blanked the visitors, 4-0, last night to keep San Francisco 7½ games behind first-place Cincinnati. The Dodgers now are two games back.

LONG SERIES
The staggering Giants send Sad Sam Jones (7-7), onetime Dodger nemesis, to the mound tonight against Stan Williams (11-9). The two teams play here again tomorrow and take Thursday off before resuming the extended series Friday at Candlestick Park in San Francisco.

Drysdale was almost flawless in hurling his 11th win against nine losses—yielding only singles to Felipe Alou in the fourth and Ed Bailey in the seventh. Bailey's was a solid hit, but Alou's bouncer was just out of the reach of Ron Fairly, a novice at first base.

To be sure, there were brilliant fielding plays—by Don himself on Willie McCovey's slashing liner in the first, by Gil Hodges on Harvey Kuenn's grounder in the seventh and Frank Howard on Alou's smash in the sixth. But, as Dodger manager Walt Alton put it, "after a couple of the losses he's had, he had those coming."

"His fast ball was good and he's shortened up on his stride," Alton said, describing other factors in Drysdale's performance. Pitching coach Joe Becker reported Drysdale's slider also was effective.

DARING RUNNERS
Giant pitcher Juan Marichal, a 13-game winner, was rattled by daring Dodger baserunning in the third and fourth. In the third, Maury Wills singled, stole second and dashed to third on a medium-length fly to Willie Mays. He scored on Wally Moon's grounder.

Tommy Davis reached base in the fourth when shortstop Jose Pagan bobbled his grounder. Davis stole second and advanced to third on an infield out. Marichal was then caught napping as Davis bore down for home, sliding under Juan's hurried throw. Marichal and Bailey bitterly contended Davis was out, but failed to convince umpire Chris Pelekoudas.

Marichal gave up a single to Jim Gilliam in the fifth and then yielded a 450-foot home run by Duke Snider that finished him on the mound. Snider's homer was his 12th of the season, the 380th of his career and boosted him into 10th place in the all-time National League records in runs batted in with 1,224.

Mays, hitting the ball out of the infield only once, had his hitting streak snapped at 14 games.

YANKEE STADIUM

Fans Disappointed—And Little Demented

By JACK V. FOX
NEW YORK (UP)—Along near the end of the first game, some uncouth fan in the highest deck of Yankee Stadium emptied a container of beer on the more elite sitting in the box seats below.

The fluid came showering down about 100 feet from where Harry S. Truman sat with his family.

And while it did not moisten the former President, it may well have expressed the emotions of many of the 34,683 who sat for five hours and 12 minutes in 94 degrees Labor Day heat hoping for Micky Mantle or Roger Maris to hit the ball over the wall.

New York—and apparently a good part of the nation—have gone slightly daffy over whether "M & M" are going to break Babe Ruth's 1927 record of 60 home runs.

Mechanical brains are pondering it (Maris si, Mickey no). Ed Sullivan almost broke up his Sunday night TV show looking at old movies of Ruth.

One columnist grabbed for the ultimate by writing of an imaginary conversation in heaven between Ruth and the late Lou Gehrig on this burning question, which led a colleague to remark that if the high living Babe is up there, then there is hope for many.

At any rate, yesterday was no day to watch M (50) and M (53), a pair whose initials have all but erased those of the former wife of Joe DiMaggio.

Just before game time, the word was passed to the press—with as much solemnity as if President Kennedy had hurt his back again—that Mickey would not play. His left forearm was sprained.

And when that fact became

evident to the multitude as the lineups were read over the loudspeaker system, there were audible groans of anguish—particularly from thousands of youngsters who still won't trade one Mantle picture card for four Marises.

Yet Roger would still be in there swinging and he got a tremendous cheer as he came to the plate for the first time. With a swing as savage as any Casey ever essayed, Maris promptly lined into a double play with the Washington Senators.

It was to be the first of eight dismal appearances. His last time up, Maris hit into still another double play and the young man had the jarring experience of hearing his fickle public booing.

That same noise seemed to arise when first baseman Bill Skowron came to bat until a more experienced baseball fan in the next seat explained that the people were going "Moo," not "Boo," in honor of Skowron's nickname, Moose.

The crowd appeared to be coming demented with disappointment and that feeling was all but confirmed when a man in a reserve seat jumped up and shouted:

"Skowron likes Chester Bowles."

Anyway, the Yankees won both games. There were three home runs but alas none by M or M, and the days are getting shorter as we reach September, the month that the Babe hit 17 home runs in his record-breaking year.

Aging Yogi Berra reached up in the stands to catch another would-be Washington homer, thereby winding up the game. In the Yankee locker room, a happy Mantle was shouting:

"Yogi's got it."

Got what? The secret of eternal youth? Some itch?

Mantle didn't explain.

Maybe he just meant Yogi has the hot potato of being baseball's hero of the day.

Tiger Pennant Hopes Dealt Heavy Blows

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
"If we're as close to the Yankees Sept. 5 as we are now, we'll beat 'em."

It was Manager Bob Schefling talking, appraising Detroit's chances in the American League pennant race a week ago. The surprising, second-place Tigers were hot. They had won 10 of 11, and they were just 1½ games behind New York with a three-game showdown series ahead.

A week later, it sounds like a voice from the grave.

It's Sept. 5 and the Yankees lead by six—the biggest bulge of the season. If the Tigers aren't dead, they're going fast.

After losing all three games in New York, the Tigers dropped their fourth in a row, for their longest slump of the year, at Baltimore yesterday 6-3, and were losing 4-1 after eight innings when the second game of the two-night double-header was called because of curfew.

FIVE IN ROW

The Yankees made it five in a row with a 5-3 and 3-2 Labor Day sweep over Washington, although Mickey Mantle was sidelined by injury and Roger Maris was hitless.

The Chicago White Sox split a pair of 9-5 decisions in a day-night doubleheader at Minnesota, Cleveland beat Boston 7-2 and a Kansas City divided a doubleheader with Los Angeles, winning 13-7 after the Angels had taken the opener 4-3.

In the National League, Cincinnati whipped Philadelphia 5-0, but the last-place Phils took the nightcap 5-3 and trimmed the Reds' lead over Los Angeles to two games. The second-place Dodgers defeated San Francisco 4-0. The Chicago Cubs beat Milwaukee 6-3, and St. Louis walloped Pittsburgh 9-4.

The Tigers out-hit Baltimore 9-7 in the first game, but blew a 2-0 lead when the Orioles tagged loser Paul Foytack (10-9) for four runs in the fourth inning. Jackie Brandt and Charlie Lau hit home runs in the rally, with Lau, a one-time Tiger, breaking a 2-2 tie with a two-run shot. Jack Fisher (9-11) was the winner, with relief help.

ERRORS HELP

In the suspended game, to be completed tonight, errors by Rocky Colavito, Billy Bruton and Dick Brown of the Tigers led to the Orioles' first three runs off Ron Kline. Detroit scored off Billy Hoelt in the sixth on a single by Al Kaline and a double by Colavito.

Johnny Blanchard, subbing for Mantle in the Yankee outfield, was 3-for-3 in the opener and broke a 3-3 tie with a home run in the eighth inning off loser Bennie Daniels (8-10). Rookie Hal Reniff (2-0) was the winner with two innings of perfect relief. In the nightcap, Clete Boyer homered for the Yanks' first run and drove in the winning run in the seventh with a sacrifice fly as New York once again came from behind. Bud Daley (10-16) was the winner and Pete Burnside (1-7) the loser.

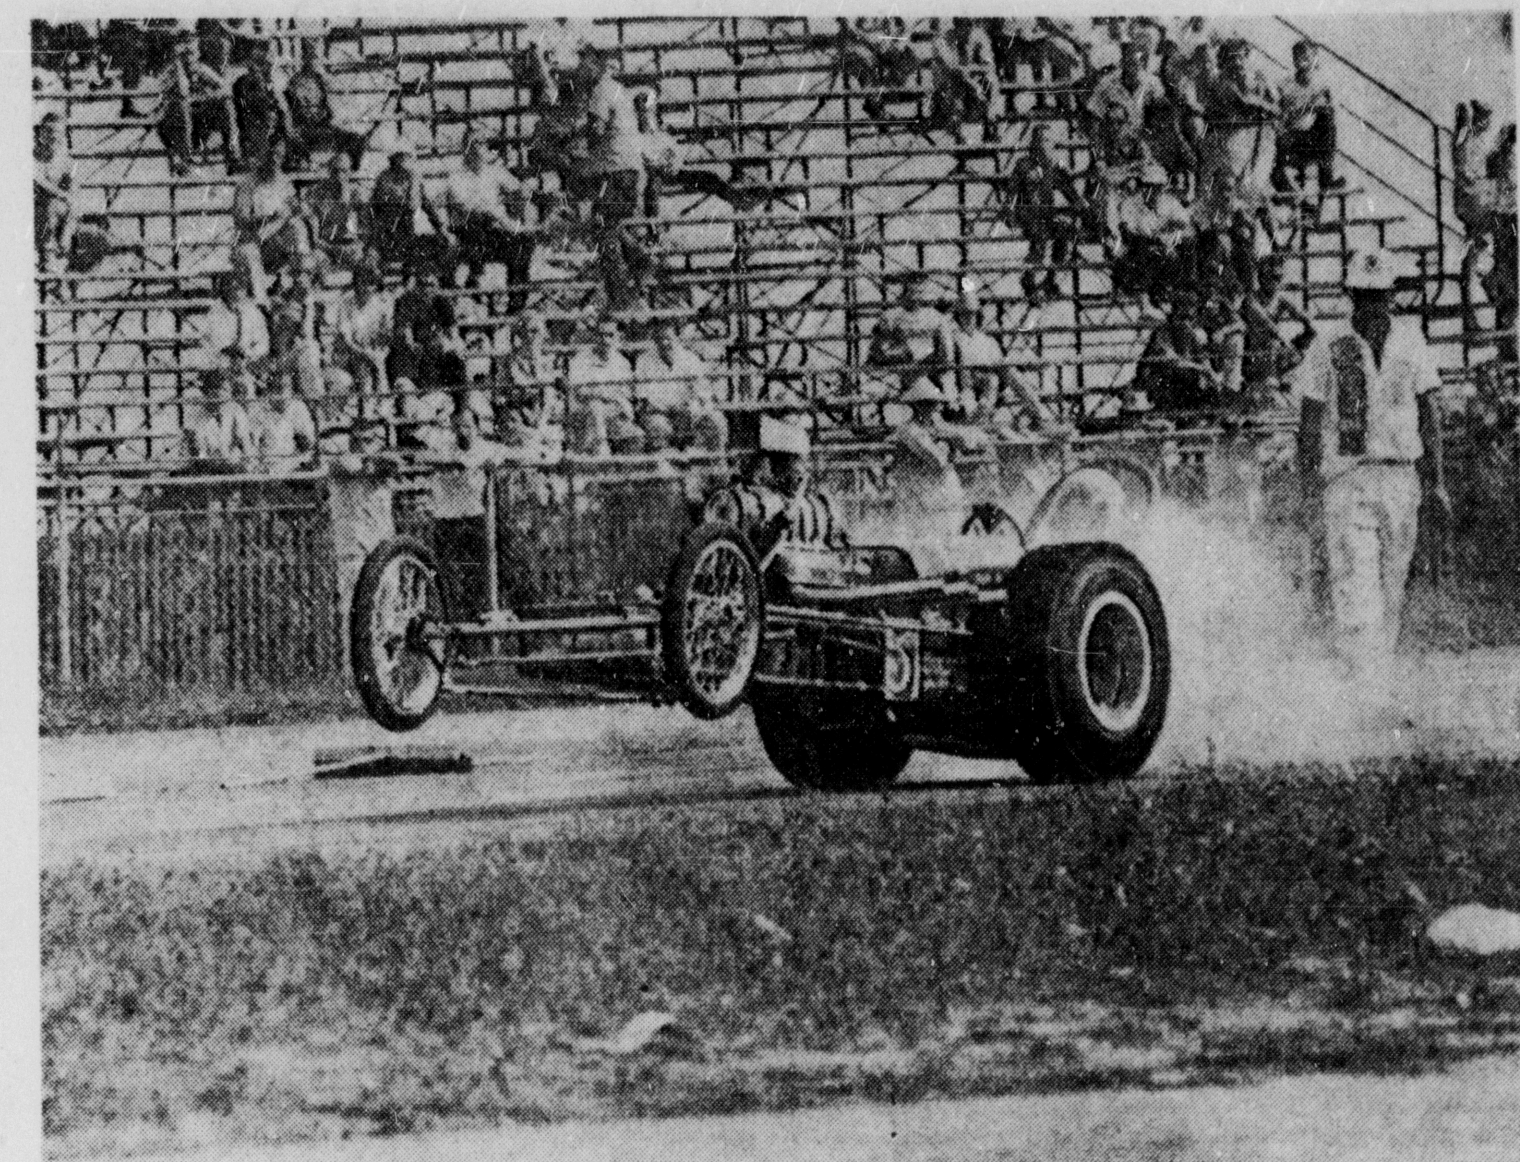

Mantle, whose 50 home runs leave him all even with the pace set by Babe Ruth when he hit a record 60 in 1927, may miss tonight's game because of a strained arm muscle. Maris, with 53 home runs, is five games ahead of Ruth.

Willie Kirkland drove in two runs with a pair of singles and a double for the Indians.

Tragic Loss Of Life Mars Weekend Race

By AL MATSON

The tragic loss of a man overboard Friday night in the Santa Cruz Race put a shadowy eclipse on the actual result.

Fred Minniear, San Francisco, was swept overboard by a heavy beam wave, a wave that was felt by other yachts in the area with some close calls for various crewmen. Minniear was aboard Colleen, a 30-foot ketch, owned by Rollo Wheeler, Berkeley Yacht Club; the yacht was dead before the wind in rough seas off Half Moon Bay early Saturday morning when the big wave hit and carried him over the side.

Precious minutes were required to bring the boat about and return to the area. Flares were sent up but to no avail. Minniear was gone. A most unfortunate happening and while of little solace to Fred Minniear's family, it is the first such casualty in the many years that the windjammers have scheduled the race—that is, if my records are correct.

Two Marinites were the winners in their respective divisions. Dr. Emmet Rixford, Sausalito, and member of the San Francisco Yacht Club, was a convincing winner in division "A" with the Annie Too and in Division "B" Dick Connick, Belvedere, who flies the St. Francis burgee, brought his Spaulding 33 Kim across the finish line first by a comfortable margin.

Winds were brutal at the start and for much of the race. Just prior to the start Nina, ex-

Israel Games Dominated By U.S. Team

TEL AVIV, Israel (P)—The United States sent its largest team ever to the Maccabiah Games and today had collected its greatest harvest of gold medals, 58—more than double the total of runner-up Israel.

The 13-sport Jewish Olympics which drew about 1,100 athletes from 25 nations, winds up an eight-day run with a colorful closing ceremony at the Ramat Gan Stadium.

Weightlifters Gary Gubner of New York University and Mike Herman, an NYU graduate; gymnast Ron Barak of Los Angeles; and swimmers Dave Abramson of New York and Maggie Rosenberg of Oakland, Calif., were the major U.S. stars. Each collected three or more medals.

The United States finished in a blaze of glory by winning 16 gold medals on the final day of competition. The swimmers won 5 more for a total of 13 gold in 20 events; the weightlifters took 5 gold in 7 events, and the shooters, tennis players and fencers bagged 2 each on the last day.

In addition, the basketball team thumped Israel 83-68 to retain the title with an unbeaten record.

Alston And Other Managers Agree That It's That Old 'Sock' That Wins

LOS ANGELES — "It's sock that wins," said Walt Alston who, like everyone else, knows that the Dodgers' pennant hopes will be decided this week during the four-game set with the Giants here in the Coliseum and the three-game series that immediately follow in Candlestick Park.

"We'll know whether we are in or out following our Coliseum and Candlestick meetings with the Giants," said the Dodger manager. "Sock will keep us in. Our big sock men are (Duke) Snider and (Frank) Howard. I was pleased to see them provide the necessary sock when we met the Reds in Cincinnati a few weeks back."

By "sock," Alston means the big hit. He illustrated with two examples.

"In one game at St. Louis we got 16 singles but scored only five runs and lost," he said.

"In Cincinnati (where the Dodgers finally broke a near fatal 10-game losing streak) we got 14 singles in one game but wrapped some sock around them and won big."

"Jim Gilliam got a double to spark a big inning and Howard got a homer during another spree. That's the kind of sock the old Dodgers used to have when Jackie Robinson, Roy Campanella and Carl Furillo were in their prime and teammates of Snider, Gilliam and (Gil) Hodges."

ALSTON COULD have illustrated the point further by citing the case of this year's Yankees who have "sock" in abundance with Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris. The M & M boys have carried a weak Yankee pitching staff. After Whitey Ford and the bullpen ace Luis Arroyo, it's difficult to think of anyone else on the Yankee mound staff.

Now, the case of the 1961 Yankees doesn't necessarily disprove the old baseball maxim that pitching is 85 percent of the game or whatever percentage you want to place on the importance of pitching.

NEITHER DOES the case of the 1961 Dodgers necessarily disprove the maxim. But it is the fact that while the Dodgers were in that 10-game dip, their worst in a couple of decades, they were devoid of any kind of "sock." There was one six-game stretch when they were able to muster only two runs.

All managers naturally like to have both "sock" plus pitching but if it comes to a choice most of them, despite the oft-cited maxim about pitching, will settle for "sock" and take their chances on the pitching.

ALSTON HAS the pitching pitching and is going all the way with four starters now—Sandy Koufax, Johnny Podres, Don Drysdale and Stan Williams with Larry Sherry providing the bullpen backing.

Whether the "sock" will be forthcoming remains to be seen.

BOWLING ROUNDUP

Marin Juniors Snag Bowl Crowns

Bob Martin of Novato and Karen Stills of Hamilton Air Force Base are champions of their respective divisions of the Country Club's first annual Junior Singles Bowling Tournament last week.

The pair took the crowns Martin was torrid as he sequenced games of 166, 181, 232, 215, 220 and 203 for the Boys' Championship. In the girls' division, Miss Stills stacked up a stately 1049 on games of 199, 160, 131, 169, 173 and 217 to edge out Sue Hendrix of San Francisco by one pin.

Hot adults of the week were members of the 540 Trio at Nave Lanes. Vid Vidlock was high man last week with his fantastic four games series total of 829—247-229. Another big hurler was Dick Treadway who rolled a 789—211-214. Bob Miller posted a 771—204-202, and Don Stevens rolled a 769—200. J. Johnson knocked down enough pins for a 768 total with high games of 208 and 203.

Anchorman and captain Phil Wallace had a hot 793 in the 545 Scratch Trio at Greenbrae Lanes last week. He had games of 188-199-181 and 225 for his count. In the same league of four game series were Willie Corda with a 791—227, and Ray Brusati, with 777—212-211.

Other high pointers in Marin County bowling were:

U.S. Net Hopes Dip As Ace Is Defeated

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — "Our Davis Cup situation is pretty bleak—we were hard up for players even before Dennis Ralston was suspended."

That was the mournful comment of David Freed, the U.S. captain, after watching his ace player, Chuck McKinley of St. Louis, take a thrashing in the National Championships from perennial spoiler Whitney Reed.

"We may have to draft some of our older players," Freed added. "We could do worse."

Topping such a draft list certainly would be Reed, 29, from Alameda, Calif., who beat McKinley, 6-3, 9-7, 3-6, 6-3, and Vic

Seixas, 38, who had match point on seventh-seeded Jon Douglas before bowing in a bitter struggle 6-4, 2-6, 2-6, 9-7, 6-4.

"I don't know what we'll do," Freed said. "If we have to play India in New Delhi on grass, as they want, we're in real trouble. If we can play on clay over here we always have Tut Bartzten, who is the best clay court player in the world."

Freed said he and the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association bigwigs still had hopes of getting young Ralston back in the fold. "Maybe the executive committee, which meets Friday, will give him only a short suspension and he can play on the cup team," the captain added. "He is a fine boy off the court with a brilliant tennis future. We all hope he can get away from his hot-headedness and become the great champion expected of him."

Seixas, a Philadelphia businessman, probably would not be available for Davis Cup duty but the same couldn't be said of Reed, an uninhibited young man of the Art Larsen stripe. "They know where to find me," Reed said after beating McKinley, "but I don't think they'll get that hard up."

Wilson Is Big In Last Hub Contest

Led by Doug Wilson who hit a homerun, triple and two singles on four trips to the plate, the Ongaro Plumbers of San Anselmo closed out their 1961 season with a convincing 9 to 5 win over the Jeffersons of San Francisco.

The Plumbers took a 4 to 9 lead early in the game only to have the visitors take the lead in their half of the fifth inning.

Plumber starting pitcher Fred Thurman tired, but was replaced by Dick Spackman, who managed to go the route. The Plumbers iced the contest by scoring three times in the fifth, and twice more in the sixth.

Several sparkling defensive plays highlighted the game; with left-fielder Tim Reardon making a diving catch of a possible double and Ralph Bocabella in center field making several over-the-shoulder catches.

The win gave the Plumbers a 7-win, 7-loss record for the season.

Dallas Open Captured By Home Pro

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—The golf tour rolled on to Denver today but the $4,300 first money in the $30,000 Dallas Open stayed home—in the jeans of home pro Earl Stewart, who won a duel with golf's great man, Arnold Palmer.

Stewart, 39, a pro who once was a terror of the tour, shot a steady 1-over-par 71 yesterday to win with 278 for 72 holes. It bested Palmer, Doug Sanders and Gay Brewer, who had varying types of tough luck, by a stroke.

Palmer, who led by two strokes going into the final nine holes, floundered with a double bogey on the 15th hole and took a 71 for 279 and a tie for second.

Sanders made the mightiest run for the money—he shot a 4-under-par 66, the lowest round—but a bogey on 16 where where he misjudged his club and overshot the green lost him the tournament.

Brewer had a closing 67 and would have tied for first place but called a penalty stroke on himself when he moved the ball in the 14th rough.

College Of Marin's Austin, Wife Return From 2-Month Alaska Trip

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Ward H. Austin, retired president of College of Marin, and his wife, Miriam, are back home in Larkspur after spending more than two months on a tour of Alaska that included—among other things—climbing on Mount McKinley and watching a re-creation of the shooting of Dan McGrew.

Austin snapped 532 color pictures and his wife collected more than 100 specimens of flowers on the trip which covered 9,301 miles. Their means of travel was a camper, a vehicle which looks like a small truck from the front and like a trailer from the rear.

"It's the only way to travel long distances," said Austin as he ran a finger down a large sheet of paper on which he had totaled up the costs of the trip. The trip took 817 gallons of gasoline at an average cost of 44 cents per gallon, said Austin. In some parts of Alaska gasoline sold for 50 and 75 cents a gallon.

The camper contains cooking facilities, storage space and two bunks. "And it sure was protection from mosquitoes," said Austin with a smile.

The Austins drove the Alaska Highway north to Fairbanks, then drove to Circle, farthest northern city of the new state, beside the Yukon River.

"About 1,300 miles of the Alaska Highway we traveled was gravel," said Austin, "and that is the best highway in the state."

From Fairbanks, the Austins flew via Wien Alaska Airlines to Nome and to the village of Kotzebue. Then back to their camper at Fairbanks, whence they drove to Mount McKinley National Park. The Austins spent five days camping in the park, which includes Mount McKinley, highest in North America at 20,270 feet.

"The mount was beautiful. We were fortunate to see the actual mountain because of the heavy fog which usually surrounds it," he said. Austin said he had a clear view of the peak for a day and a half of the five days they spent there.

They later took a boat trip to the Columbia Glacier, which is 400 feet high along the face and five miles wide.

The retired college president said Palmer, near Anchorage, is about the only suitable area in Alaska for agriculture. Here was growing wheat, oats and barley, while cattle grazed on the pastures.

"The weather there was just about like it is in Marin," Austin said, "although in the winter it can get as cold as 40 or 60 degrees below zero."

At Anchorage, the Austins stopped off to see Mr. and Mrs.

Lyman Woodman and their son, Kent, former residents of Marin. The senior Woodman, a former Air Force Colonel at Hamilton Air Force Base, is now assistant city manager of Anchorage, Kent, a former student at College of Marin, is working for radio station KBYR in Anchorage.

After spending a day of salmon fishing with the Woodmans, Mr. and Mrs. Austin drove on to the Kenai Peninsula and did some more fishing in the Kenai River.

"My wife caught the biggest fish, a 12-pound silver salmon," admitted Austin.

In Dawson City, which in 1898 was a bustling town of the famous Klondike Gold Rush, the Austins arrived in time for annual "Old-Timer's Night," which even recreates the "Shooting of Dan McGrew."

"We had a wonderful time," both Austin and his wife said. And they agreed in saying Alaska is a wonderful place to spend a vacation traveling—but "only if you have enough time; you can't see Alaska and have a good time in only two weeks." Mr. and Mrs. Austin spent 69 days roaming through the "50th state of the union."

Little Rock Quietly Accepts Integration

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Four white junior high schools and a third high school were integrated quietly in Little Rock, Ark., today, four years after the first desegregation sparked rioting.

Police were on hand at seven once-white schools, where 48 Negroes are enrolled. There were no crowds as Negroes entered white junior high schools and Small Technical High School for the first time.

Persons living near the schools watched from front porches.

Today's integration leaves Little Rock only one all-white school above the elementary level. No Negroes asked to attend Pulaski Heights Junior High School. Grade schools still are segregated.

The first integration at Central High School in 1957 resulted in rioting. Finally federal troops were called out to enforce court-ordered attendance of nine Negro students.

Central has 13 Negro pupils this year, six more than last year. Hall High School has six Negroes, two more than last year, and Tech has five Negroes, the first of their race at that school.

Twelve Negroes were assigned to West Side Junior High School, just four blocks from Central, and nine to East Side Junior High. Southwest Junior High has two Negroes and Forest Heights Junior High one.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus in 1957 used National Guardsmen to delay integration at Central. Faubus closed the schools in 1958 and police beat back a brief demonstration in 1959. There was no disorder last year.

Public schools will be integrated this week for the first time in Dallas and Galveston, Tex., and Daytona Beach, Fla. New Orleans will begin its second year of desegregation.

Police measures similar to those which accomplished orderly desegregation of four Atlanta high schools last week, will be in effect in New Orleans where angry demonstrations marked admission of four Negro girls to elementary schools last year.

The New Orleans schools, largely boycotted by white students last year, will re-open on a desegregated basis Thursday. Less than 10 Negroes will be admitted to four other white schools at a later date.

Police barricades will go up around all six schools Thursday. The 1,100-man police force has been ordered on a 12-hour day and the Justice Department is sending 60 U.S. marshals to the city.

Dallas also has made extensive plans for beginning integration, including police measures to quell any disturbance. Business and civic leaders also have carried on a campaign to create a climate of acceptance.

Ads For Gasoline Come Under Fire

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Colored air for automobile tires is about the only thing missing in the gasoline advertising additive race, says an oil company official.

J. M. Shea Jr., vice president for marketing of American Petrofina, Inc., told the Oklahoma Oil Jobbers Assn. that claims in some industry advertising leaves the buying public laughing.

"We are making it increasingly hard on the operator to live up to our unrealistic assurances of perfection," he said of gasoline service stations.

Art Festival Ends 3-Day Run In Sausalito

The three-day run of the Sausalito Art Festival ended last night after 15,000 persons had gone through the Central School playground gates at 420 Litho Street.

Of these, according to Edwin S. Long, secretary of the sponsoring Sausalito Chamber of Commerce, 6,000 were paid admissions. Long added that art lovers bought $5,000 worth of art.

Best in show prize was awarded to Joyce Frasu of Fairfax for her oil painting, "Net Menders"; second award went to Aguilier More of San Rafael for an oil, "Portofino"; third prize was won by Phoebe Deignan, Mill Valley, for her painting, "Gray Still Life." The three awards of $50, $30 and $20 were given by the Sausalito Foundation Inc.

Nan Fowler, Sausalito, won the $100 Spinnaker award for the best marine painting. Newcomers to Marin County Sheldon Kagenoff and Robert Dittner, San Rafael, won the Glad Hand $40 ceramic award. Winner of the photography award was Michael Bry of Sausalito, who received the Bridgeway Inn $25 prize.

Artists, by ballots, named Franc Snyder as having the best painting of Sausalito artists for his Stations of the Cross. Axel Nordell of Mill Valley was voted the best for his selection of crafts; Numael Pulido, Mill Valley, for the best Sausalito scene, "Sausalito Harbor," and Niels Hansen of Woodacre for the best child portrait, "Spanish Girl."

The Sausalito Cooperative Nursery School, according to president Hilda Gallagher, received $250 from sale of watermelon slices, soft drinks, peanuts and coffee.

Fairfax Fire Victim Is On Critical List

Eleanor W. Wier, 50-year-old Fairfax house fire victim, was reported in critical condition at Marin General Hospital today.

Her mother, Mrs. Theresa Wier, 86, also a victim of a fire that gutted the pair's home at 140 Dominga Avenue early yesterday, was reported still in fair condition. The daughter suffered third degree burns covering the upper half of her body. During the night her condition worsened, said attendants. Mrs. Wier suffered no burns, but is ill with carbon monoxide poisoning.

Fairfax Fire Chief Charles M. Thornton today estimated the fire's damage at $11,000. He said investigation yesterday revealed the fire started on an enclosed porch in the front of the Wier home, but its cause is still undetermined.

The women were rescued by Fairfax firemen who found them unconscious in the blazing house about 1:20 a.m. yesterday.

Escaping Triple Murderer Spotted By Warden's Wife

CHESTER, Ill. (AP)—James Gordon Palmer, quick on the trigger triple murderer, escaped from Menard Penitentiary yesterday but was caught within an hour when Warden Ross Randolph's wife spotted him with her new field glasses.

Palmer scaled the tall brownstone prison administration building, using a drainpipe and notches in the stone, and made a dash for the nearby Mississippi River.

Mrs. Randolph was in the warden's living quarters, three stories high, when the alarm sounded.

She picked up a pair of binoculars the warden recently had given her and with her son Ronnie, 15, walked out on a porch.

Mrs. Randolph said, "Ronnie had the glasses when I thought I saw a man's arm on a buoy out in the river. I said 'Can that be somebody swimming out there?'"

Ronnie replied: "It sure is. I can see his arm."

Mrs. Randolph took the field glasses, made sure it was a man and informed a prison officer who dispatched a boatload of guards to the buoy.

Palmer, 22, who is so dangerous he is even feared by his fellow prisoners, was pulled sputtering from the murky water, barefoot and clad in light prison clothing.

Palmer is serving a 180-year sentence for the murder of a Wood River, Ill., waitress. He has signed confessions to two other gunshot slayings, a St. Louis County bait shop dealer and a Tennessee filling station attendant, in the fall of 1960. All were for the purpose of robbery and the victims, Palmer said, were killed because "Dead people don't identify you." He obtained $258 in the three slayings.

Beverage Control Accepts Payment

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control announced it has accepted payment of $250 in lieu of a suspension of the on-sale general liquor license of Paul N. and Della DeMoss, The Seven Seas, 682-84 Bridge-way, Sausalito.

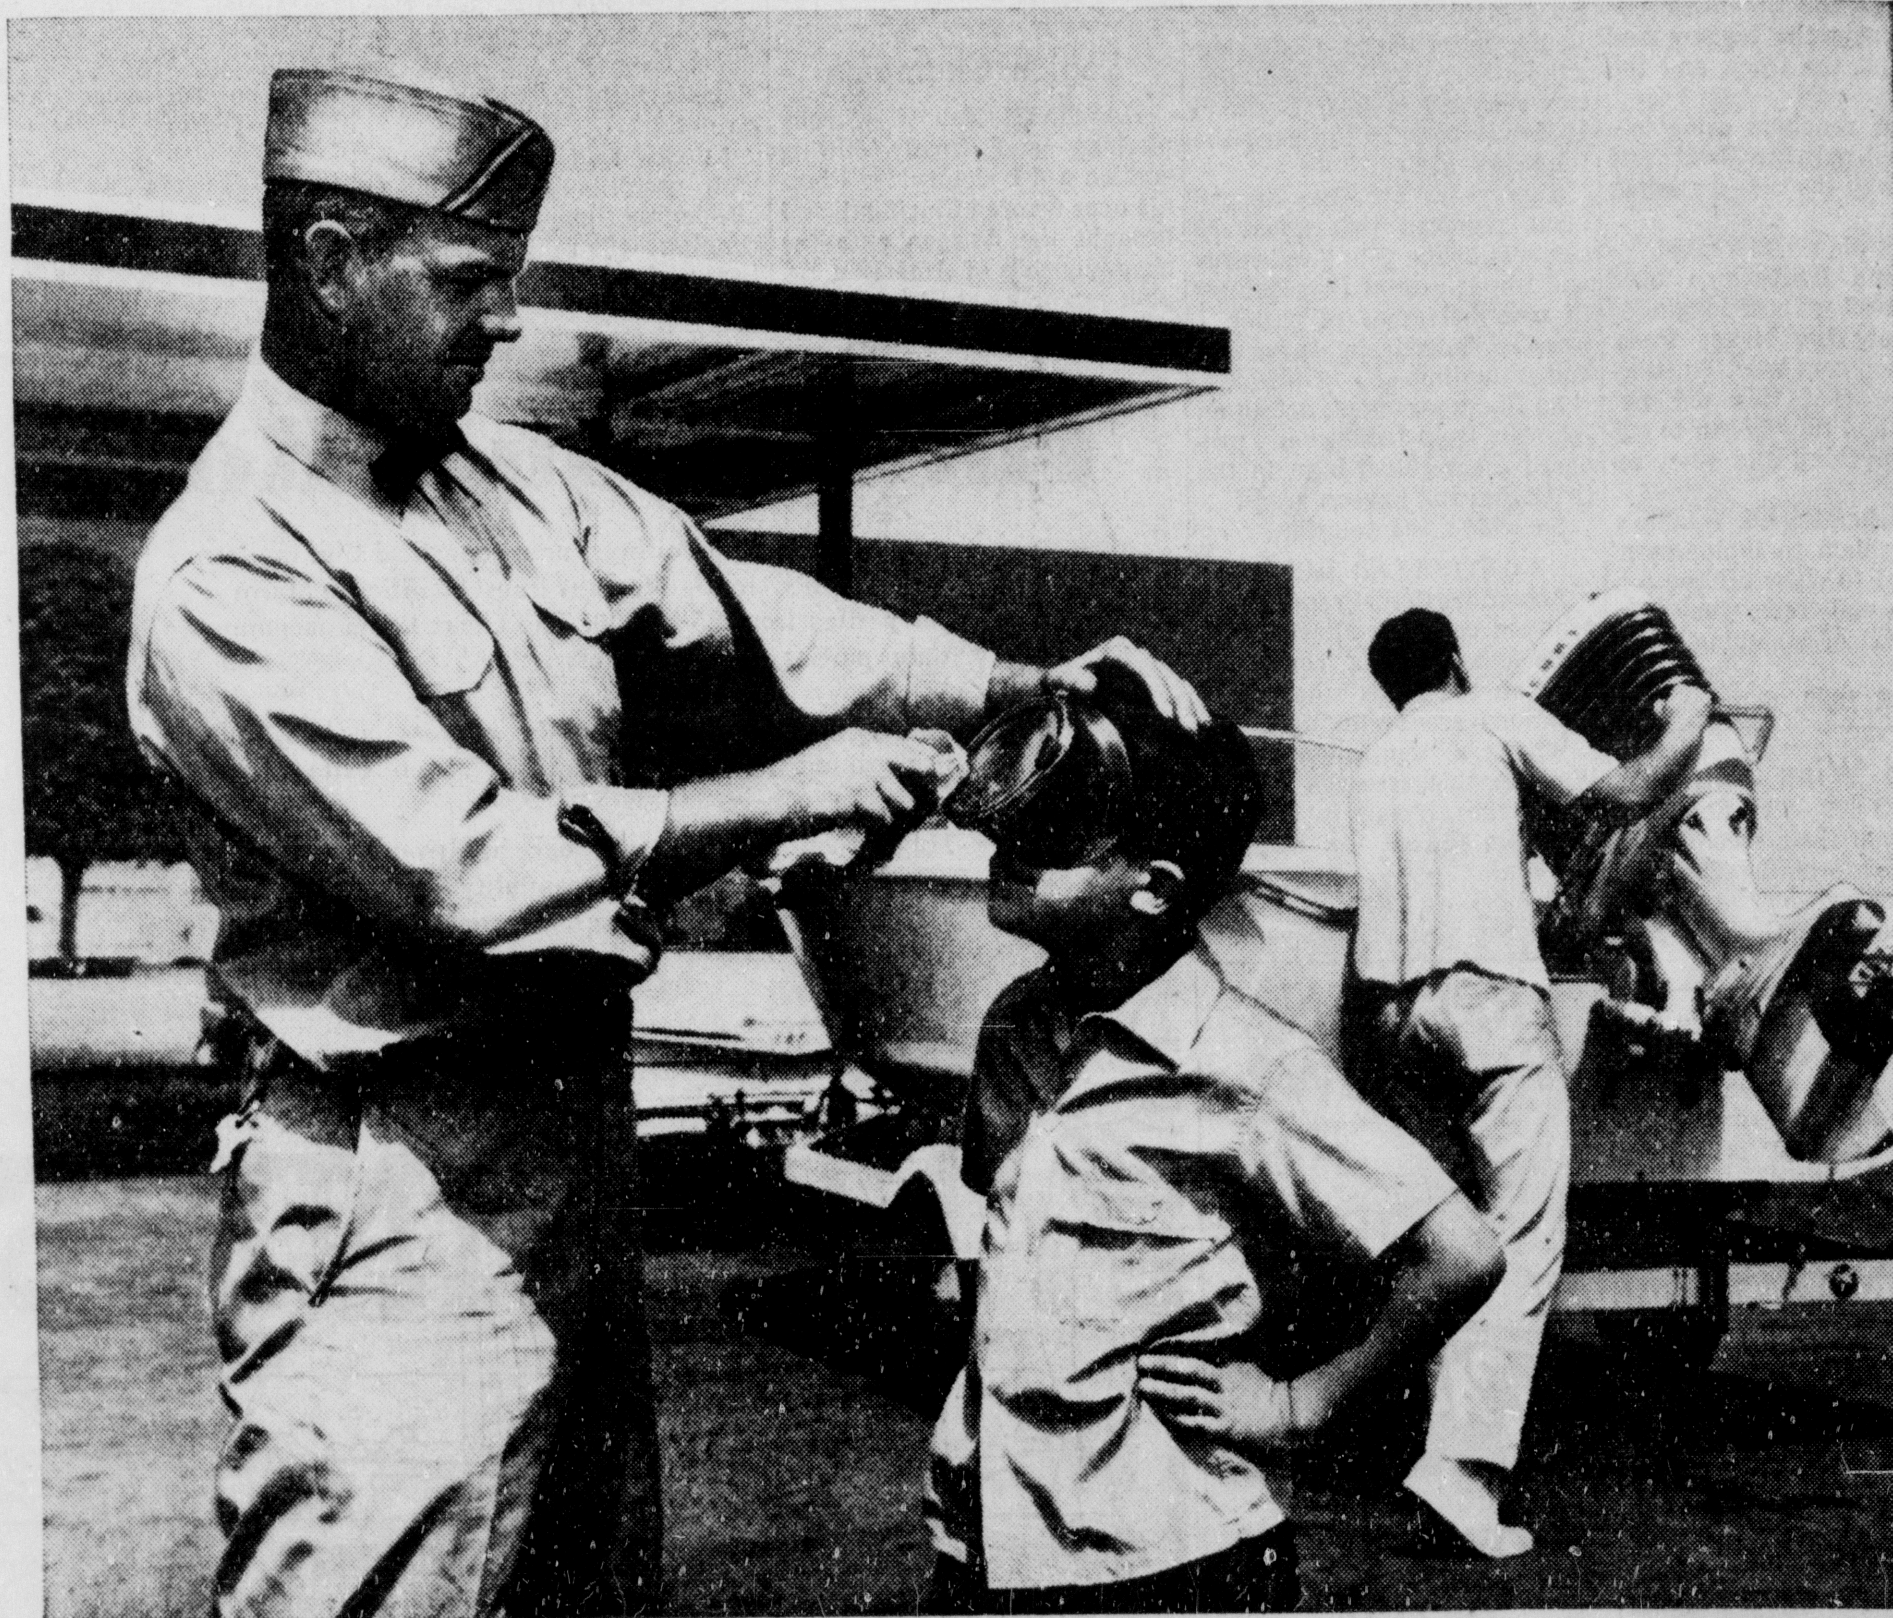

The licensees had been charged with sale to a minor, permitting a minor to consume and permitting a minor to remain on public premises.

'EAT WELL, LIVE WELL' is the theme for the day-long meeting Sept. 13 in San Rafael for anyone interested in learning about food. Here Mrs. Virginia Porter, left, home advisor for the University of California Extension in Marin, and Mrs. Emma Gilman, health educator of the Marin County Health Dept., set up displays for the consumer education meeting. Food additives, old wives' tales, food and drug law protection and heart diseases and diet will be discussed. The program is tailored to help Marin women in buying, planning and serving food.

Nutrition Meeting Scheduled

Food Facts To Be Given Housewife In All-Day Program

Do you think that water is fattening?

Are brown eggs more nutritious than white ones?

Does Melba toast have fewer calories than the same size slice of bread?

The right answer to each of these questions is "no." But if you answered yes to one or more of these fallacies you would find yourself with plenty of company.

To provide consumers with correct and dependable information about the food they buy and about government inspection for sanitation and food quality are some of the goals of a day-long program to which the public, and particularly the housewife, is cordially invited.

The program, built around the theme—"Eat Well and Live Well," will be for Sept. 13 from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Jewish Community Center, 1618 Mission St., San Rafael. Sponsoring the consumer education meeting is the nutrition committee of the Marin Council of Community Services.

First speaker on the morning program will be Dr. Ruth Huenemann, associate professor of public health nutrition, University of California, who will discuss some widely publicized fallacies about food and nutrition.

"Food fads often mean a waste of money on expensive special foods that provide no better nourishment than ordinary foods available in every food market," Dr. Huenemann says.

"How Safe is the Food You Eat" is the title of a talk to be given by McKay McKinnon, district director of the Federal Food and Drug Administration.

At the afternoon session Dr. Laurence W. Kinsell, director of the Institute for Metabolic Research, Highland-Alameda County Hospital, will report on findings of research on the relation between diet and heart disease. The Institute for Metabolic Research is carrying on studies with radio-active tracer material relating to the effects of fats in the diet.

During the sessions questions from the floor will be encouraged by the speakers, who will answer them immediately.

At 12:30 p.m. those attending will have box lunches and reconvene at 1:30 p.m. for Dr. Kinsell's talk on food and heart disease.

The day will begin with registration at 9:30 a.m. and coffee, with Frances Dahl, Marin of the tuberculosis and health association; McKay McKinnon Jr., district director of the U.S. Food and Drug Administration, and Mrs. Frances Dahl, nutritionist and chairman of the Marin Council of Community Services. (Independent-Journal photos)

COORDINATING the program for the Sept. 13 nutrition meeting are those who will participate. From left are Mrs. Luella Mersereau, dental health consultant for Marin schools; Mrs. Genny Berry

Council of Community Services chairman, introducing the speakers at 10 a.m.

The nutrition committee, sponsor of the all-day program for homemakers, is an inter-agency committee which brings together people in nutrition education. Its purpose is to provide opportunities for interested persons to keep up to date on new research and methods in nutrition and to stimulate interest in nutrition. Represented are the County Health and Welfare Departments, schools, P-TA, private health agencies, University of California Agricultural Extension, and professional workers in nutrition.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Paul Spenglers Say Aloha At Dinners Prior To Departure

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Paul and Celia Spengler are saying goodbye to their friends at a number of dinner parties as they are leaving Marin to make their home permanently in Honolulu. Their guests at dinner Saturday night were Dr. and Mrs. Harry Hensler, LeRoy Pages, John F. Allens Jr., John O'Connells and the Melville Wolfs.

The Spenglers are selling their home in Ross before moving to the islands. Date of their departure is not certain. It may be they will leave the latter part of October.

Paul, who was vice president for Hiram Walker and Son, Inc. in the Western Division, is resigning. He is establishing the firm of Spengler and Son, Inc. in Honolulu. Paul Spengler Jr. will be associated with his father in the business and Celia says she will be the "Inc." The Spenglers will be missed at the Meadow Club and Celia at Ross General Hospital where she organized volunteers. She also did the pioneer work for the Blood Bank.

Four sisters, Mrs. Esther Clark and Misses Virginia, Eleanor and Margaret Matheson of Corte Madera, are sailing tomorrow on the Lurline for three weeks vacation in Hawaii. They will stay first at The Breakers in Honolulu and then go on to see the other islands.

HERE FOR THE OPERA

Season opening in San Francisco is Mrs. Lucia A. Halsey, formerly of San Rafael, who now makes her home in Hawaii. She has just returned from four months in Europe where she attended the opera in Florence, the musical festival in Spoleto and operas in Rome and Frankfurt. The San Francisco Opera Season begins Sept. 15. The day before, Mrs. Halsey will be joined by another former San Rafaelite, Mrs. Leon Sterling Jr., the former Lillian French, who also lives in Honolulu. They will stay at the St. Francis Hotel for four or five days and then Mrs. Halsey will sail on the Matsonia for Hawaii. She and Lillian are friendly rivals. The latter is a designer for Pauline Lake and will wear one of the creations of her salon which is in the Royal Hawaiian, Honolulu, to the opera. Mrs. Halsey will wear an opera gown by Betty Higgins who also has her salon at the Royal Hawaiian. Of a specially woven gossamer with silver and gold threads. It has gold, silver, royal blue and cherry flowers. It is designed with a Sabrina neckline and the long full skirt has a train.

Mrs. Halsey is now staying with the Thomas M. Dimmicks at their San Rafael home. For the Christmas holidays there will be a big family reunion at Mrs. Halsey's home on Diamond Head. Her son, Richard (Dick) Anderson and his wife the former Sari Borden, and their two little girls, who have been living in Europe for several years, are arriving in October.

Dick has been with the Army in a civilian capacity as an architect in Frankfurt, Germany. He and his family will go to the islands immediately to see his mother and they will return for the Christmas reunion. Also present then will be his brother, Reginald (Grant) Anderson and his wife, Betty, who live in Benbow, where the family has extensive timber holdings. The Thomas Dimmicks, who divide their time between Benbow, where they also have timber interests, and San Rafael, will also be with Mrs. Halsey at Christmas as will their son, John Dimmick, his wife and their two little girls, Sarah Jane and Jan.

PLEASING TO THE EYE is the effect of using wall fabrics coordinated with matching draperies, and you can "redecorate" the entire room by merely changing the wall and curtain appearance. The wall fabric is entirely washable and is applied by moisten-ing the sticky backing. Other textured wall coverings and coordinated fabrics are suitable for dressing room, dining room, den or bedroom. The homemaker is able to avoid the expense of new furnishings, and still give her home a fresh appearance.

YOUR HOUSEHOLD

New Walls For Old Created With Ease

What is the best way to make a room look new, revived, bright with fresh interest? The answer may be wall fabrics. From the ceiling down, wall coverings impart a just-moved-in newness housewives love.

Their colors don't fade as easily as wall paints and if you're in the market for easy-care walls this season, it's vinyl-coated wall fabric will do. Scuff-resistant, it wipes clean in a jiffy. Your walls will look better longer.

Latest fabrics are pre-pasted. They need only sponge-moistening to apply.

It's what's underneath that counts, if you want your fabric to stick flat and close indefinitely. It's easy to prepare your walls—with a little know-how.

It is a great temptation when a covering has substance, to let it cover the tiny cracks in a wall that require mending. But don't try it that way—it won't give you a good job.

If you plan to apply your vinyl-coated fabric to walls in the kitchen you probably have a grease problem to contend with. Wash greasy wall surfaces with an ammonia solution. Follow with clear water, and dry.

Old paint, of course, can stay... but where painted surfaces are glossy, dull them with a paint and varnish softener, steel wool or sandpaper.

Now to tackle the cracks. Big or small. Take the time to fill them in with patching plaster or spackling compound. All but the largest repaired spots will be dry enough in a few minutes to be sandpapered smooth. And now your wall is patched, clean and ready for its beauty treatment.

You don't need to be an expert to do a tidy job of covering your walls with fabric. Put all your effort into the first strip you apply, then all the others will fall into proper place.

Do what the professional wall coverers like to do. Start at a door or window to make the job easier.

They cut the fabric a few inches longer than necessary, unrolling strips alongside each other to make sure the pattern matches when they cut it. Amateurs should cut all the strips needed for an entire wall before attempting to apply the first strip.

It is at this point the one messy step in old-fashioned wall covering has been eliminated. No paste pot. All you need is a bucket of water and a large sponge, a wide, soft brush, scissors, and a sturdy ladder.

Men know what a plumb line is—and why you have to start with one—but chances are there may be ladies vague on this subject. A plumb line is the straight-up-and-down mark you need to get your wall fabric on properly.

From the door or window you've chosen for a starting point, measure a distance to one side as wide as your fabric strip. At this distance, tie a fork or other weight to a string on the wall at a point near the ceiling. Let it dangle while you go to your water sponge and the first strip of fabric.

Moisten the strip, line up the side of it with your plumb line... with a little overlap at the ceiling. Brush it to the wall, top to bottom.

Crease the wall fabric into the ceiling joint with scissors. Pull it away from the wall just enough to permit cutting along the crease line. Follow the same procedure around the doors and windows. (And you can remove the plumb line after the first strip is up.)

The edge of the first strip is your guide for succeeding strips. Each new strip should be tightly butted against the last. Open seams may be butted by pushing the strips together with your hands before the adhesive sets.

BEATING THE old method of paste pot, messy brush and glue spots on the floor is the new method of applying wall covering. This homemaker shows the way by moistening the back side of the textured wall fabric and carefully sticking it on in strips. Unusual colors, textures and patterns are available to dress up the walls.

California led the nation last year in the number of schools participating in the special school milk program and the volume of milk used, according to a report of the U.S. Department of Agriculture Marketing Service. The report revealed that 6,061 California schools served 266,000 half pints of milk to the school children.

Purpose of the Special Milk Program is to increase the consumption of milk by children in schools of high school grades and under by making milk more readily available to more students at lower cost.

The law requires that each dollar of Federal funds disbursed by State agencies to schools must be matched by three dollars from sources within the state if the per capita income in the State equals or exceeds the national average. Our state's income is well above the average.

Two-Month-Old Babies Should Be Happy, Not Be Disciplined

"I want to keep my baby happy," a mother writes, "but I'm afraid of spoiling him. I can't stand to hear him cry, yet I don't think I should give in when he does. My mother-in-law tells me to be strict. I try to obey her, but it is hard. How much discipline can a baby take?"

My answer is none at all. Babies should not be disciplined. Our little ones can't learn to be spoiled, permanently. You need not worry about this, but try to keep him happy.

Years ago doctors said mothers should feed their babies on a rigid four hour schedule, no matter how much they cried. Some even said that crying was the way babies exercised. Now they know better. Healthy happy babies don't cry very much. Their baby walls are distress signals. Something is wrong. Their mothers should try to find the causes and eliminate them.

When he is 3 years old your boy can be spoiled, easily. Then you'll want to have rules. You'll need to enforce them. If you give in very often you'll be sorry. But at 2 months he should be indulged. He needs to learn that he is safe in the world, that you love him and will protect him. Teach him not to be afraid of life. Such lessons are basic to mental health and are not the most important ones you'll ever teach him.

Ignore your mother-in-law's advice. There is no need for you to obey her. The baby is yours, not hers. Your instincts are in the right direction. Follow them and you won't be sorry.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "We have twin girls, 5 months old. My wife is their slave. She hardly ever leaves them. I feel left out. Should mothers devote so much time to their babies?"

(A) Yes, for their babies' sake. Mothers should give their infants undivided love and care. I suggest you try to help with the babies. Get in the act and you won't feel left out.

Elise Murolo Wed Sunday In San Francisco Nuptial

Elise Frances Murolo became the bride of Harry Edmond Glavin Sunday afternoon at St. Peter and Paul Church in San Francisco. She recited vows in a gown of slipper satin and chantly lace that had been her mother's wedding gown.

Elise was given in marriage by her father, Albert Murolo of Kentfield for the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Gabriel Zavattaro.

Mrs. Frances Piazza was matron of honor and Carol Bernadini and Dorothy Furlanico were bridesmaids and Helen Wagner was the junior bridesmaid. Flower girl was Michele Piazza. They wore pomegranate satin dresses with bouffant skirts.

Robert Bjorn served the bridegroom as best man. Guests were seated by Albert Murolo Jr., Frank Alioto, and John P. Figone was the ring bearer.

After the ceremony a reception was given at The Village in San Francisco. The couple left on a wedding trip through Southern California. They will live in San Rafael.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murolo, was graduated from Redwood High School. She reigned as Queen of Columbus Day festivities in San Francisco last fall. She is the sister of Albert Murolo and the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alioto.

Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield A. Wagner of San Anselmo. He is a Drake High School graduate and attended the College of Marin. He has served with the Air Force in Japan.

Mrs. Schultz First President Of New Symphony Auxiliary

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Mrs. Robert L. Schultz, first president of the newly organized Marin Symphony Auxiliary, has been addressed so often as "Madame President," that she must have an involuntary impulse to respond on hearing the term.

She was the first girl ever elected to the student body presidency of her high school. Since then over a period of years she has been president of the Symphony Guild of Marin for two years, 1958-60; the Marin Music Study Club, 1957-59; Marin Mills College Alumnae, 1952; National Mills College Alumnae Association, 1949; and before that of the San Francisco Mills College Alumnae.

Music has played a leading role in Thelma Schultz's life ever since she started studying piano at the age of seven.

The only living child of the late Walfred Knutson and Mrs. Knutson, who still lives in Patterson, Calif., Thelma was born and reared there until she finished high school as valedictorian of her class.

Her father, one-time mayor and civic leader in the town, played a violin and trombone and organized the town's band, and Thelma had the same musical talent and organizational ability.

She has the rare gift of absolute pitch, but "It's not an unmixed blessing, for obvious reasons," she laughed.

Blue eyed and blond, Thelma

Schultz leaves a lasting impression on most people she meets of friendliness, graciousness and tremendous enthusiasm for the many things she undertakes.

Even in high school she was always in the center of activities, playing clarinet in the school orchestra, singing in the chorus and taking leading soprano roles in the school operettas.

At Mills College, where she received her A.B. degree with major in music and master's degree, also in music, she had been encouraged to become a concert pianist, but on account of the great depression she was more concerned with earning a living, so that she also obtained her teaching credential.

TAUGHT MUSIC

For one year before she was married to Robert L. Schultz in 1938 — Yale engineering graduate who is now a national sales manager for a company with headquarters in Wisconsin — she taught music in Monterey High School. She also taught a half year in Marina Junior High School before the Schultzes moved from San Francisco to Marin in 1951.

Their only son, Kenneth, who is now attending school on the Stanford University campus in Germany, was born in San Francisco.

Speaking of changes that had been made in their home, which at present has floor-to-ceiling windows overlooking Mt. Tamalpais, she said, "You wouldn't recognize our home if you had seen it as it was when we bought it, for we are great do-it-yourselfers."

She explained, "Our rock collecting grew out of my interest in gathering decorative rocks for flower arranging." This is another of her hobbies, frequently taken advantage of by the Outdoor Art Club, the Mill Valley Community Church and its Triple C Club and other organizations.

Women's Clubs Federation Outlines Projects For Year

The California Federation of Women's Clubs under the presidency of Mrs. Earl J. Hazelton of Orland, has outlined projects for the coming year.

In legislation and government Mrs. Earl B. Shoemith of Sacramento, state chairman, announces a special program: state-wide observances by all clubs of the 50th anniversary of women getting the vote in California Oct. 10.

Mrs. John A. Sleeth of San Luis Obispo, state national defense chairman, now serving on both the California Disaster Office Women's Council and on OCDM Region 7 Women's Council points up the government's civil defense program with a special outline on family survival, with family planning on how to convert part of the home into a fallout shelter, stocked with adequate supplies, special medicines, drinking water, and other necessities for survival.

This material has been sent out to all districts as her national defense insurance program. In line with our Latin American activities the drama and speech department, with Mrs. May A. Rhein of Los Angeles, state chairman, proposes Spanish classes in all clubs and districts through workshops in the districts and Spanish sections in clubs. A drama exchange program in the districts with monthly meetings would be advantageous to all club drama chairmen as an agency where clubs could exchange drama material and ideas.

Federation views the challenge of conservation as an opportunity, and will continue to work for law enforcement on water pollution, and an adequate water program. The federated clubwoman has emerged as a dynamic influence, states Mrs. J. B. Atkinson, state conservation chairman. For reforestation clubwomen have raised $7,915 to plant 101,245 trees.
